PARIS PAPER'S PREDICTION

Says Germans Will Sign Treaty Before July 1 and Ratify It by Aug. 1

Big Four Meets Amid Atmosphere of Pessimism—Clemenceau Still Firm

Threat To Use Allied Troops To Halt Hungarian Invasion

PARIS, June 10.—(Hayas).—The signing of the peace treaty by Germany before July 1, and its ratification by the various parliaments before August 1, is predicted today by the Echo de Paris. It expects the answer to the German counter proposals to be handed over probably on Friday. The course of the Germans, it thinks, will be to replace the Scheidemann government by another, in case the present government determines not to sign the terms as the allies finally present them.

Clemenceau Firm
PARIS, June 10.—The council of four met today amid an atmosphere of considerable pessimism over the larger questions of peace making with Germany still unsettled. It is understood that Premier Clemenceau had not moved from his position against any modification of the peace terms.

No settlement of the Silesian question or that concerning the Polish western frontier has been reached. It is stated that the Silesian problem is tied up with the difficulty of holding a plebiscite without allied occupation.

L.H.S. GIRL OFFICERS

Four Majors, Sixteen Captains, Four Adjutants and 16 Lieutenants Announced

Helen E. Harrison, Amy L. French, Edna L. Laurin and Ruth A. Walker of the junior class of the high school will lead the girls' battalions as majors next year, their appointments, along with those of 16 captains, four adjutants and 16 lieutenants, being announced at the close of school this noon. They have won their honors by dint of excellent work throughout the year and success in the competitive drill held last Friday afternoon, at which time they outscored 50 other girls who also were striving for topmost honors.

Miss Harrison, senior major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Harrison of Dracut; Miss French, major of the second battalion, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. French of 31 Mammoth road; Edna Laurin, major of the third battalion, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Theophile Laurin of 773 Merrimack street; and Miss Walker, fourth major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Walker, 153 Ninthron avenue.

The four senior captains who will command A company of the first, second, third and fourth battalions, respectively, are Marion Leadbetter, Gerda Lynch, Madeline Fleming and Gertrude Sweeney. The 12 other captains are: Anna Armstrong, Dorothy Back, Margaret Doherty, Mary McKay, Mildred Leathers, Margaret Sharkey, Mildred Portek, Ida Humphreys, Catherine Washburn, Gertrude Lewis, Grace Burke and Mildred Anderson. Next in rank come the four adjutants, Catherine Hackett, Marie Reynolds, Martha Gallagher and Florence McKewin.

The 16 lieutenants are the following: The Tarcoite, Hazel Cameron, Eileen Ryan, Colla Gendreau, Louise Fay, Mary Haggerty, Anna Kennedy, Gertrude Fay, Anastasia McCrosson, Helen Ing, Helen Cady, Marion Durrell, Alice Murphy, Mildred Jones, Neida Ross and Elizabeth Carmichael.

Ninety-four girls competed in the drill held before three out-of-town judges in the Paige street annex last Friday afternoon. Their work in this drill counted one-half of their average, the other half being the grade of their early work. The two marks were added and an average made by Supt. Schools Finch J. Molloy and Herbert Bixby, head master of the school.

ILLINOIS FIRST STATE TO RATIFY

Woman Suffrage Constitutional Amendment Passed by Senate and House

Wisconsin Legislature Also Ratifies Amendment by Big Majority

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 10.—Illinois is the first state to ratify the woman suffrage constitutional amendment. The general assembly approved the measure today. The vote in the senate was unanimous, while in the house the vote was 132 to 3.

WISCONSIN SAYS "DITTO"

MADISON, Wis., June 10.—The Wisconsin legislature today ratified the federal suffrage amendment, the assembly voting 54 to 2, and the senate 23 to 1.

SECOND DAY'S PLAY IN BIG GOLF TOURNEY

NEWTON, June 10.—Players in the national open championship at the Essex Country club, began their second round of 18 holes today with more favorable weather than yesterday. Heavy showers during the night had thoroughly soaked the ground, however, and it required a high shot to get distance.

The players' scores at the end of the first 18 holes left the gallery as much in doubt as to the winner as before the 132 entrants started play yesterday morning. Francis Oulmet and Charles (Chick) Evans were the only amateurs with scores low enough to place them near the top of the list, and they will fight it out for first honors with a dozen professionals.

THE COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB

An important meeting of the Community Service club will be held this evening in the quarters of the organization in the Runcles building. The meeting will be called at 7:30 o'clock and it is expected a large membership will be on hand, for business of a very important nature will be transacted.

The first item of business will be the election of team captains, and it may be said that all members of the club are eligible for the positions. Then there will be a community sing under the direction of Albert Edmund Brown, and this will be followed by the reading of the pledge ritual. Miss Loughridge will give an interesting talk and a general discussion of the summer program will follow. The meeting will close with the election of officers for the ensuing year. All members of the club are cordially invited to attend.

TODAY'S CASES IN THE POLICE COURT

Charged with a violation of the motor vehicle law Michael G. Lallas was arraigned before Judge Fisher in police court today. A plea of not guilty was entered and a continuance granted for one week.

Louis Reault and Margaret Scanlon pleaded guilty to a statutory charge and the man was ordered to pay a fine of $75. The woman was given a house of correction, sentence, suspended for six months.

Another couple who were present on a statutory charge had their cases placed on file. The names given by the two were Homer Oger and Julia Bouchine.

For drunkenness Agnes Richards was sentenced to two months in jail. The probation officer issued six releases.

Hairs Will Vanish After This Treatment

(Toilet Helps)

You can keep your skin free from hair or fuzz by the occasional use of plain delatone and in using it you need have no fear of marring or injuring the skin. A thick paste is made by mixing some of the powdered delatone with water. Then spread on the hairs and after 2 or 3 minutes rub off, wash the skin and all traces of hair have vanished. Be careful, however, to get real delatone.—Adv.

CALL FINANCIERS TO TESTIFY

Morgan and Others Asked To Appear at "Leak" Investigation Tomorrow

Members of Congress Have Copies of Treaty Which Was Published Today

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Telegrams requesting J. P. Morgan, Henry P. Davison, Thomas W. Lamont, Jacob Schiff, Paul Warburg and Frank A. Vanderlip, New York financiers, to appear before the senate foreign relations committee tomorrow and testify in the investigation of how copies of the peace treaty reached private interests in New York, were sent out today by direction of Chairman Lodge. Instructions were given yesterday by the committee that subpoenas for the witnesses be issued, but Chairman Lodge decided to summon them by telegram, regarding the formal delivery of subpoenas by the senate sergeant-at-arms as unnecessary.

Treaty as Public Document

Meantime members of congress had copies of the treaty which were published today in the Congressional Record. Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, who forced printing of the treaty yesterday, was understood to plan today to have the senate order the text printed as a public document, which would make it available for distribution as a complete volume.

BOY KILLED ON HIS WAY TO SCHOOL

A very sad accident occurred in Varnum avenue this morning when Leon Genest, aged 10 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Genest of 475 Varnum avenue was crushed between one of the rear wheels and the platform of a jigger or stone wagon. The little fellow was rushed to the Lowell General hospital, where he died shortly afterward.

Leon and his little brother, Fred, left the house shortly after 7:30 o'clock for school and climbed aboard a jigger filled with boulders, the wagon being owned by George Fall of Varnum avenue. When a point was reached opposite the Lowell General hospital, the wheels of the jigger got caught in the electric car tracks and the jolt threw Leon against one of the large wheels, and he got caught between the wheel and the platform. It was some time before the little fellow could be extricated from his position and he was carried in haste into the hospital, where all efforts to save his life proved fruitless. Fred Genest was more fortunate than his brother, for he was thrown to the ground in the rear of the wagon, receiving but slight scratches.

Leon, who was a bright pupil, cherished by his teachers and classmates, is survived by his bereaved parents, three sisters, Alice, Ida and Bertha, and four brothers, Horv, Henri, Fred and Maurice. The body was removed to the home of the parents by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

MONEY FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Commission Asks Authority To Borrow Outside City's Debt Limit

About $1,500,000 Needed For School—Meeting Today of Municipal Council

As the direct outcome of a meeting held last evening at city hall at which were present members of the high school building commission, the municipal council, the school committee and legislators from this district, a petition signed by members of the first three bodies was today forwarded to Representative Victor F. Jewett to be presented to the legislature at once, asking that the high school commission be authorized to expend money borrowed outside the city's debt limit of an amount sufficient to complete the erection and equipment of the proposed new high school. No specific sum is stated in the petition as the members of the three bodies were not ready to go on record as favoring any such amount. Last evening's discussion, however, brought out the fact that a sum in the neighborhood of $1,500,000 more will be needed to complete the school.

Inasmuch as the legislature will accept no new business after Thursday of this week it was imperative that the petition should be presented as soon as possible. As soon as it passes through its various legislative stages and comes to the committee to decide its fate, the sum wanted will be specified.

The petition is signed by all members of the high school commission with the exception of John A. Stevens, who was out of town at the time of last evening's meeting, but who gave his consent to be put on record as favoring it. It is also signed by the members of the school committee and the municipal council. Members of the latter body signed the petition at this morning's regular meeting.

Other matters taken up at this morning's meeting included a hearing on the claim of the Donnelly Iron Works that it be reimbursed for the alleged failure of the city to carry out a certain contract providing for the repair of the Woburn street bridge; the virtual rejection of the petition of members of the local police department for one day off in eight and the vote to observe the Fourth of July with a military celebration in honor of returned soldiers and sailors.

Meeting in Detail

The meeting was called at 10:11 with all members present. The first business taken up was the signing of the petition to have the legislature consider the authorization of the high school commission to borrow sufficient money beyond the debt limit to build the city's new high school. Mayor Thompson said that the petition had been signed by members of the high school building commission as well as the school committee and it was felt that if it also bore the signatures of the members of the council it would have the solid front of the three bodies and thus command more attention in the legislature. The matter, he said, was merely a petition to admit the bill authorizing the borrowing of more money, to legislative discussion. He emphasized the need of immediate action as this year's legislature will consider the new business after Thursday. All the members of the council then signed the petition.

A hearing on the petition of the Lowell Electric Light corporation for permission to erect three poles in Walker street brought forth considerable discussion on the part of opponents of the petition and those in favor of it were also represented. The matter was finally referred to Commissioners Murphy and Marchand.

A hearing on the petition of the Donnelly Iron Works in connection with its contract with the city of Lowell for the supply and erection of structural steel for the repair of the Woburn street bridge was held. Hon. James E. O'Donnell appeared for the petitioner. He reviewed the history of the contract briefly, stating that on June 1, 1918, the city council submitted to the city treasurer for his approval an order providing for the appropriation of $5000 for the construction of the Wilder and Woburn street bridges. On June 10 the order was approved by the treasurer and

There were 13 men in the graduating class to whom members Lowell Textile school handed diplomas and degrees this afternoon and 95 per cent. of these young men have already been offered and accepted substantially paid jobs as mill executives and may be at their new work within a fortnight after graduation.

Besides this honor for the class of 1919, Lowell Textile this afternoon conferred the degree of bachelor of textile engineering on Tsun Kwei Woo of Shanghai, China, highest degree in that branch of textiles that can be earned. Only one other textile or technical school in America awards this degree. Tsun Kwei Woo is the first man of his nation to win this high honor in technical education in America. His education has been paid for from the Boxer indemnity fund. He is also the honor of having travelled the farthest to avail himself of this

VERY NARROW ESCAPE

Man Knocked Unconscious by Live Wire—Horse Injured—Women Scared

A man was rendered unconscious, a horse knocked down and seriously injured, and two young women almost scared to death by a broken electric wire which hung down over the road at the end of the Varnum avenue trolley line shortly before midnight last night.

The young women, Misses Harriet and Helen Roberts of 1019 Varnum avenue, were driving homeward in a buggy last evening, and had reached a point near the end of the car line on Varnum avenue when a broken and dangling electric wire, which had burned off a short time previous, struck the horse on the head.

The shock of the current threw the animal to the ground, and a man, whose name could not be learned, rushed across the street to their assistance. In attempting to untangle the wire from the injured horse he received a severe shock that rendered him unconscious for the time being.

It was stated today that the man escaped death only by a miracle as the current must have passed untriflingly through his body. He was apparently unhurt, however, and picked himself up and went away.

Neighbors hearing the screams of the frightened girls rushed to the scene, and assisted the young woman from the buggy. By this time the horse had kicked himself free from the wreckage and it was found later that he was seriously injured.

JURY VIEWS SCENE OF ALLEGED MURDER

LAWRENCE, June 10.—The jury selected yesterday to try Mrs. Bessie M. (Skeels) Lundgren, a nurse, for the alleged murder of her patient, Miss Florence W. Gay, today visited the former residence of Miss Gay in Andover. The defendant had passed the night at her own home in Andover, as she is out on bail because of her weakened condition from recent illness.

Withstands Strain of First Day

Counsel said Mrs. Lundgren had withstood the strain of the opening day of trial well. After the view of the Gay home by the jury, it was expected that the defendant would hear from Attorney General H. C. Attwell in the opening address for the prosecution, a recital of the acts charged against her and of the evidence which the government will offer.

To Be Known as "Mrs. Skeels"

It is the contention of the prosecution that while caring for Miss Gay in December, 1917, the nurse gave her poison and stole several articles of value from the Gay home. It was announced that the defendant would be known throughout the trial as "Mrs. Skeels," no judicial notice being taken of her marriage three months ago to A. J. Lundgren of Andover, at a Brookline hospital.

TO DECLARE WAR ON NICARAGUA

Report Costa Rican Minister Has Received Authority From Congress

Costa Rican Forces Already Advancing — Declaration May Have Been Published

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, Monday, June 9.—The Nicaraguan government is reported in usually reliable quarters to have confidential information that the Costa Rican minister of war recently obtained from the congress of that country the authority to declare war upon Nicaragua. The authorization was said to be in a form which permitted him to make the declaration at an opportune moment. As Costa Rican forces are now advancing from Santa Rosa, near the Nicaraguan border in the northwestern corner of Costa Rica, it is supposed here that the declaration already has been published in Costa Rica.

It is pointed out in this capital that Nicaragua, notwithstanding her meagre police force, has done everything possible to isolate the Costa Rican revolutionary activities within Nicaragua. Costa Rica's reported action, therefore, is considered here one of gratuitous aggression, instigated by Nicaraguans resident in Costa Rica.

Report is Denied

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Carlos Lara, representative here of President Tinoco of Costa Rica, has made formal denial of any intention of Costa Rica to invade Nicaragua.

"The fears expressed by Nicaragua are baseless and absurd," his statement said, "and therefore she does not need to implore the help of the American government against Costa Rica. Let Nicaragua concentrate in the interior of her territory the nucleus of these adventurers who invaded our country and who in a few days with great energy, were repulsed, routed and driven out of Costa Rican territory by our troops, and Costa will then withdraw immediately to the interior the small forces that it has at present ready to protect its frontiers."

FIRST AID IN THE MILLS

Local Manufacturing Concerns Install First Aid and Hospital Stations

The state law which required the institution of a first aid and hospital station in every shop and mill employing 100 or more persons, and which became effective on June 1 could hardly find a more fertile field than Lowell for development and practical demonstration of its need.

In many mills at present the first aid station is simply in the process of immature development, but in others it is a well established and busy agency, caring for many minor accidents during the day and serving as an immediate

FIGHT AGAINST THE LEAGUE

Resolution To Have Senate Declare Against League as Now Drawn

Move Made by Sen. Knox, Republican, After Conference With Sen. Lodge

WASHINGTON, June 10.—A resolution to have the senate declare it could not concur in the League of Nations provisions of the peace treaty as now drawn, was introduced today by Senator Knox, Pennsylvania, republican, of the foreign relations committee.

The resolution which is expected to bring to a more definite stage the fight being made against the league covenant asks that the covenant be separated from the peace treaty before it is submitted to the senate for ratification.

At the request of Senator Knox, who announced he would later discuss it in the senate, the resolution was referred to the foreign relations committee.

The resolution was offered by Senator Knox after a conference with Chairman Lodge of the committee, and there were evidences that it would have the backing of most of those who have conducted the fight against the league. It is understood to be designed as an official notice to the peace conference that ratification of the treaty in its present form is opposed.

HAVERHILL TODAY AT SPALDING PARK

Haverhill, playing a better brand of ball than its position in the standing indicates, met Lowell this afternoon at Spalding park. The local team looked strong enough to start a rapid climb to the top of the heap, and Hayden is going after the game with Haverhill as a good stepping stone toward the latter. Hayden is giving Henry Sullivan, the local catcher, plenty of work and the stocky boy thrives on it. His throwing has been good and his batting ability makes him a valuable man on the tail end of the order.

Burkett has not re-joined the Haverhill team as manager as yet as the Holy Cross schedule is not over for the year, but when he does come back to the fold it is expected he will have three or four colleagues along with him to add power to his outfit. The rain of yesterday gave the Spalding park playing surface just the right amount of moisture and the sun today helped put the diamond in first class condition. The scoreboard in right field has been dolled up and new white figures, better shaped than the former ones, have been secured.

HENRI FERRON PAROLED

Lowell Man Who Figured as Principal in Murder, Allowed His Freedom

Henri Ferron of this city, who since 1910 has been confined to the insane department of the state farm at Bridgewater for the murder of Flora Lariviere, which occurred in Hereford place, off Marshall street on the evening of Jan. 25, 1910, was released yesterday afternoon after the charge of murder against him was placed on file by Justice Hugo A. Dubuque at the criminal session of the superior court in East Cambridge. Ferron spent last night in this city and this evening will leave for Mass. Station, Ontario, Canada, where he will live with an uncle and aunt.

Although very thin in appearance, Ferron is enjoying the best of health, and says the treatment he received at the institution was most satisfactory. "I have lost at least 15 pounds during my incarceration," he said, "but that was due to confinement for several years."

The mutilated body of Flora Lariviere, a married woman, was found on a mattress in the kitchen of her home at 3 Hereford place, off Marshall street, on the morning of Jan. 25, 1910. A search was immediately started for Henri Ferron, who was known to have lived there, and who had disappeared. A few weeks later word was received in this city that Ferron had been captured at St. Sebastien, Que., and Lowell officers went to Canada and returned with the prisoner. He did not fight extradition.

Ferron was kept under observation for a few days and finally was declared insane by two physicians and sent to the insane department of the state farm at Bridgewater. During his long stay at the farm Ferron was a model prisoner and won the confidence of the attendants and officials to such an extent that after five years he was given considerable freedom. He conducted a clothes cleaning and pressing department and in this manner was able to save enough money to care for his aged mother, up to the time of her death, which occurred in this city, April 15, 1917. During his spare time Ferron also learned the carving business.

About a year ago through the recommendations of his attendants Ferron was placed on parole and given more freedom than ever. He was transferred from the insane department to

We Sell Nothing But First Quality Merchandise

We Sell No Seconds No Jobs No Damaged Goods

The reliance that womenkind has in sugar-filled wafers which they supped on at the tea hour is well illustrated at the tea hour given for returning soldiers and sailors.

Every woman in the city has in her pantry a generous supply of the National Biscuit Company's always useful and universal product. One sees them almost as much as she sees the sugar-filled wafers which she served at the tea hour.

Perhaps the most comprehensive and complete mill first aid hospital in the city is connected with the Bay State Cotton Corp. This company has had a registered, graduate nurse in its employ for several months. A hospital building just across the street from the mill, is equipped most thoroughly with every modern appliance. Mrs. Thelma Caldecott is the nurse in charge and her work not only includes first aid but also milk sanitation and the general health condition of the employees. In her hospital it is possible at a second's notice to prepare for the dressing of a slight scratch or for a most serious operation. The receiving and operating rooms are immaculate in appearance and complete in equipment. Medicine and instrument cabinets line the walls and her many appliances even include a baker for the treatment of rheumatism and neuritis. She averages about six cases a day in actual first aid work, but her health hints to employees and enforcement of sanitation regulations take up every minute of her time.

In practically all of the local mills graduate or registered nurses are in charge of the work. In one or two instances young women without sufficient nursing experience have been engaged, but the industrial nurses, meeting in Boston a few days ago, protested against this, and it is believed that only graduate and registered nurses will hereafter be employed. The nurses believe the work too serious and taxing for an inexperienced worker and believe the full intent of the law cannot be carried out unless a woman of wide comprehension and extensive training is in charge.

At the Massachusetts Co. Miss Ann Taylor, nurse, has been in charge only for a few weeks, but already her results are easily apparent and considerable development is planned. Miss Carr is doing splendid work at the Merrimack and the Appleton Co. after careful study is installing a splendid hospital equipment under the supervision of Mrs. Sarah Wood, registered nurse.

The Turkish delegation en route to France on board a French warship is to appear before the peace conference merely in an advisory capacity, and its members will not be considered as plenipotentiaries. There has as yet been no definite statement whether a treaty with Turkey will be negotiated.

Threat to Use Force (By The Associated Press)

While the peace conference heads are devoting as much of their time as feasible to the framing of the reply to the German counter-proposals, this work has not yet reached such a state as to make possible the naming of a definite date for the presentation of the document to the German plenipotentiaries.

There has been considerable interference with the deliberations of the council of four over this question of primary interest. On Monday, for instance, the council was compelled to devote much of its session to consideration of the situation in Czechoslovakia, where the advance of the Hungarian soviet troops has brought about what is admittedly a serious situation. An ultimatum has been sent to the Hungarian government, it is reported, demanding that the advance into Czechoslovakia be stopped and threatening to use allied troops to force Hungary to abandon her invasion of her neighbors' territory.

The main question which the council now is considering in connection with the German treaty is the proposed change in the covenant of the League of Nations whereby the terms of Germany's admission would be made easier. The proposed changes are said to be prompted mainly by a desire to forestall the possible formation of another combination of nations, with Russia, Germany and the former Germanic Allies taking the leading roles. It is felt in some quarters, according to advices, that it would be easier to deal with Germany as a member of the league than if she remained outside.

The Turkish delegation en route to France on board a French warship is to appear before the peace conference merely in an advisory capacity, and its members will not be considered as plenipotentiaries. There has as yet been no definite statement whether a treaty with Turkey will be negotiated.

An important political event in Germany, not for today, is the national conference.

NEW PLAN FOR REPARATIONS

PARIS, June 10—The plan for reparations which is now proposed in the Council of Four, according to Marcel Hutin, of the Echo de Paris, consists of the following: first, in seizing German liquid assets to the value of 25,000,000,000 francs; second, to leave a margin of two years so that an accurate idea of the economic and financial situation in Germany may be gained; third, after two years to exact payment on account of 125,000,000,000 francs in gold or negotiable securities; and, fourth, to give the reparations committee authority to raise the amount of the annual payments by Germany, should her capacity to pay increase.

SERG. LOONEY WRITES FROM GERMANY

Germany with its structural beauties of the present and legends of the past is interestingly depicted by Serg. William H. Looney of this city, who is now overseas with the band of the Sixth Engineers as a part of the army of occupation, in the following letter to a member of The Sun staff:

May 14, 1919.
Dear Friend: We are in Coblenz for a two weeks tour of duty and believe me, it is quite different from Ochtendung. It seems a coincidence that we are located in the same barracks where we landed Christmas eve, but conditions are much better at present. We are in large rooms with many beds. Our duties are divided so that we have a chance to see a good part of the city and surrounding country.

Rest assured, there is plenty of work; in fact, the hand had to be divided so that the boys would get a chance to catch their breath. We play for parades, guard mounts, officers' mess, nurses' dances, boat trips and movies, so you can't get bored.

Last week we went on another trip on the Rhine as far as Gaub, a beautiful little place about as large as Varnum. Each one of these places has its legends and they are most interesting. The one about Gaub has to do with Count Conrad, a daughter, Agnes, and Henry of Bruns. The story is long but the upshot of it is that Henry, dressed as one of the farmhands you see on the outskirts of Lowell, makes many visits to the place and secretly marries Agnes. Yesterday was a day of leisure for the whole band and Leo Bissonnette, Harry Girard and myself went for a trip to Stolzenfels and it surely was worth while.

One of the Y secretaries takes a bunch of soldiers from the front-line to the boat landing every afternoon. The cost of the ride is only a mark at the present time. It takes about 45 minutes to get there and then one has to climb to the castle. No climbing for me, as I have a horse and donkey and as the price is only five marks, I engaged a donkey to do the climbing. By the way, the donkey was not much larger than a St. Bernard dog. The gang gave a mighty cheer as four of us trotted by on the sure-footed animal.

After arriving at the top the guide takes 40 at a time into the chapel where the nobility formerly attended service. It is a handsome place with fine paintings and woodwork. Before one enters the castle he has to put on a pair of felt sandals and the guide who looks off their shoes before entering places, but at the palace you put on extra ones. I suppose it is because the nobility would ruin the nicely polished hardwood floors. It was a scream to watch some of the fellows scull along. You'd think they were trying on snowshoes. In one of the rooms the floor is inlaid with marble, walnut and oak and it surely is a dandy piece of work. We also had the pleasure of going through the queens' bedrooms. It was in one of these rooms that Queen Victoria slept when she visited Stolzenfels. In the same room is a table with so many different kinds of wood in it that I thought the guide was talking about army hash. We went through every room in the castle and the people of the early days certainly knew how to live. In another room are suits of armor, swords, guns and relics of the early wars. One of the caretakers opened a door and we were in a beautiful lower overlooking the Rhine and the Lahnneck as well as the Lahn river. We spoke so much about the trip that Baker, Boulger and some other band boys have gone this afternoon; we are planning a trip to Marksburg where the lead and other mines are. The French are on duty in that section, but we can pass them, so our chances are good. Yesterday morning I had a swim in a resident's swimming pool and it was all right. It was not as large as the Y.M.C.A. pool in Lowell, but is very pretty. The tile flooring is a light blue and the side walls are highly colored. The deepest part of the pool is three metres and the water was fine. We had a corking time and it seemed like "Ho, for the beach" two weeks ago when we went to the beach to hear grand opera. Rigoletto was being given and it was great. There was an orchestra of 35 pieces and we could not understand the words of the opera as it was sung in German, but we did know that it took eight big husky bandits to kidnap a little puny fraulein. The theatre is very much like the old music hall, but has a couple of extra balconies. The orchestra pit was a corker just as you are at the grand opera in Boston and the members of the orchestra hanging their hats, coats and canes in full view of the audience. That's the case in this theatre.

While standing on one of the famous pontoon bridges Sunday afternoon watching the barges go through the slip we got talking about the drawbridges in and around Boston. Just then an officer turned around and asked me what I knew about Boston. I told him what little I did know and added that I lived 26 miles from there, in Lowell. He asked me whom I knew in Lowell and told me all about the Knowlton Press in North Chelmsford. He was Lieut. Knowlton of the cavalry. He has been from one end of the Rhine for the other and in fact has been all over Germany and France.

We had some Lowell boys visiting us at our barracks recently. Among them was Quinn of the 58th Infantry; he comes from Centralville, also a chap named English, who comes from the same place. I have also met Capt. Joe Molloy and he is the picture of health. This country is observing the feast of Landesfeier for eight days out of respect for those who were killed during the war. I attended the service in one of the handsome churches last Sunday. We were all glad to hear of the return of the 36th Division and from what we hear from outfits that fought with them, the people at home cannot do enough for those who have arrived here safely.

We hear we are to go home soon, but we are never sure until we are on the boat. We played at the Mothers' day service May 11. Enclosed find booklet and program. Well, it is time for me to go. The boys are all in the best of health and send their best wishes to all their friends at home. Yours, W. H. LOONEY.

BOSTON BARS CLOSE FOR DRY PROTEST MEETING

BOSTON, June 10.—All Greater Boston went voluntarily dry last night as a silent protest against war-time prohibition. To add impetus to the huge mass meeting in Mechanics hall, the Boston Liquor Dealers' association and the Hotel Men's association requested the city to close their bars at 6 p. m., and, except in the case of a few exclusive clubs, the request was heeded implicitly.

Chelsea added its protest by closing its swinging doors at 6 o'clock, thus making the "dry" section extend for many miles outside of Boston proper. Jamaica Plain, Roxbury, East Boston, South Boston and Charlestown all closed with the stroke of 6. Congressmen Gallivan and Fitzgerald and C. A. Windle were the principal speakers. All attacked war-time prohibition. Gallivan said: "Our best bet is the president," and he expressed the hope of action by Wilson. Fitzgerald declared fraud and deception were employed to pass dry legislation. Windle argued that prohibition is neither right in principle nor is it Christian in character. Temperance has to do with your control of yourself. It is right. It can be defended. Prohibition has to do with your control by others. It is wrong and has no defense.

BOY SCOUT CAMPAIGN

First Meeting in Drive For Associate Members and Leaders Held Last Night

That Bolshevism in the United States can be successfully coped with in the coming years by signing up the Young America of today in the ranks of the Boy Scouts, was the statement of Roland Sherman of Winchester, a prominent Boston attorney and president of the Mystic Valley Council of Boy Scouts, in speaking of the needs of the organization at the first meeting of the local campaigners held at the new Scout headquarters in the Daylight building on Market street last evening.

The Scout campaign for associate members and scout leaders opened in Lowell and throughout the country yesterday. It is the purpose of the drive to secure this week 1,000,000 associate members for the national organization, who will be asked to contribute $1 for the rebuilding of American manhood by enabling the organization to secure capable and efficient leaders for the scout troops.

Despite the inclement weather a fair sized audience turned out at last evening's meeting and followed with interest the remarks of the speakers. Arthur T. Safford, vice president of the local council presided, and introduced Mr. Sherman as the first speaker of the evening.

Mr. Sherman said that he had only to look back into history to find that the United States had always risen to every emergency that had confronted it. Today we are face to face with the greatest emergency of all—the rapidly increasing tendency towards Bolshevism and radicalism throughout the country. To get what they want no matter what the means seems to be one of the characteristics of many of our present day classes of citizens, the speaker declared.

Selfishness is at the bottom of this condition and the remedy lies in forgetting self and training our citizens of tomorrow to live unselfishly, honor their country and their flag, and stand firm for the principles of true democracy, he said. There is no better way to give our boys this training than through the Boy Scout organizations.

The essence of the Scout movement is to make of these boys real American citizens, but to do this, efficient, whole-hearted and patriotic leaders must be found. Scoutmasters are the crying need of the organization today, and if we can get the right kind of men to devote part of their time to this work we shall have taken a long step towards making America the home of peace and true democracy, Mr. Sherman said.

Scout Commissioner E. B. Carney was the next speaker and called attention to the difficulties under which the local organization is laboring. Scouting in Lowell has lost its former standing and efficiency through the lack of capable and enthusiastic men who would give of their time as scoutmasters, he said. At least 25 scoutmasters are needed here if the boys of the Spindle city are to be given an opportunity to get into the game.

There are now 450 Boy Scouts in Lowell, Mr. Carney said, which is a ridiculous number when compared with other cities of this size. Lots of boys here would enjoy a chance to become scouts but lack of leaders has made it impossible to form troops in which to place them.

The average boy, in Lowell and throughout the country likes nothing better than to get out in the woods and see just what he can accomplish, and this training, as well as the principles and code of honor which form the basic part of a scout's training, will be found to be of inestimable value to our men of the future. Sea scouting, the newest wrinkle in scout work, should be feasible in a city like Lowell, situated near so many rivers and lakes, Mr. Carney declared.

The speaker concluded by saying he hoped the members of the audience would do their best to interest their friends and acquaintances in the problems of scout leadership which the local council finds itself facing, and thereby do a good turn for the boys of the city who would welcome the chance to become members of the local organization.

The final speaker, Scout Executive R. I. Ripley also called attention to the great need of scout leaders here, and said that it is hoped that enough volunteers will be found for this work to make possible the establishment of a scoutmasters' corps reserve school this summer, so that the autumn will find a capable group of men ready to take the field in Lowell.

There is a great opportunity in this work for returned soldiers, the speaker declared, as the boys who "delivered" are coming back to us—clean mentally, morally and physically, and are sure to be found capable and able to hold the respect and admiration of their troops.

It's a great thing for the tired business man, too, said Mr. Ripley. Much better exercise than golf and much more enjoyable after the man has become interested in the work. If leaders can be found to take charge of the new troops which it is hoped to form.

CHILD SAVED FROM WORMS

Signs of worms are: Droned stomach, swollen upper lip, sour stomach, offensive breath, hard and full belly with occasional gripings and pains about the navel, pale face, leaden tint, eyes heavy and dull, twitching eyelids, itching of the nose, itching of the rectum, short, dry cough, grinding of the teeth, little red points sticking out on tongue, starting during sleep, slow fever. If your child shows any of these symptoms, start giving Dr. True's Expeller at once. —Adv.

ACQUITTED OF MURDER

Captain and His Son Freed on Charge of Killing Sailor at Sea

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Captain Adolph C. Pedersen and his son Adolph E. were acquitted by a federal jury yesterday of the charge of causing the death of Axel Hansen, a sailor on the bark Puako, of which they were officers. The jury was out six minutes.

Both defendants were overcome with emotion when the verdict was announced. The Pedersens were accused in charges filed with the American consul at Cape Town by members of the crew with permission Hansen to drown after he had jumped overboard in mid-ocean.

The sailor, according to the statements of his shipmates, leaped from the deck to escape a beating at the hands of the Pedersens. He seized the log line trailing behind the vessel, but lost his hold when the bark continued on its course, members of the crew charging that the Pedersens refused to attempt a rescue, while the defendants alleged that it was impossible, owing to high seas, to bring the ship about.

Judge Hough warned the jury that they must not entertain the government's charge of murder in the first degree, on the facts alleged by witnesses for the prosecution. He said the second mate could be convicted, if at all, only of murder in the second degree, and the captain of murder in the second degree or manslaughter.

In their defense the Pedersens alleged that Hansen had preached I.W.O. doctrines and had attempted to incite mutiny aboard the Puako. They denied the crew's charges of brutal treatment of Hansen and attributed his act in leaping overboard to suicidal intent.

The acquitted officers did not walk out of the court room free as they have yet to face trial for assault and brutality. Today their attorney will apply for bail.

London Comment on Senate

Vote on Ireland—Carson Man Beaten

LONDON, June 10.—The London newspapers, as a whole, are not excited over the resolution adopted by the United States senate asking the American peace delegates to secure a hearing before the peace conference for Ireland's delegates. Owing to the difference in time between America and England and the fact that few papers publish on Sunday, yesterday was the first opportunity the daily newspapers had for comment.

The Daily Chronicle expresses surprise that Americans "are so extraordinarily misinformed on the Irish question." It adds:

"Truths which are commonplace here

are entirely overlooked or unknown in America, where it is not realized that the home rule question is not an issue between England and Ireland but between Irishmen and Irishmen."

"Deliberate Assault on Friends" The Morning Post comments in stronger terms and ascribes the action of the senate to hostility to the League of Nations, British support of which, it says, has stirred up intense animosity against Great Britain. It repudiates the idea that Great Britain wishes to interfere with the Monroe Doctrine and complains of "blame" cast on Great Britain for what President Wilson has done.

The paper declares that British interests and British sovereignty have been sacrificed in an apparently futile effort to placate him. The Post continues:

"There is no country in the world but America where such a deliberate affront to a friendly power would be offered. Judged by all standards of international comity and decorum it is indefensible."

"Purely Domestic Politics" "We do not mind it, for it is purely domestic politics," says the Sunday Express, in commenting on the resolution passed by the United States senate asking the American peace delegates in Paris to secure a hearing for Ireland's delegates before the peace conference.

"It affects the Anglo-American relations," continues the newspaper, "no more than if the house of lords were to recommend the peace conference to receive a delegation from the Philippines to hear reasons why their aspirations for freedom from American control should not be realized, or a delegation from Porto Rico with a similar mission."

"But, as Kipling says, that is another story, and the house of lords does not depend for its existence on votes and there is no organized propaganda in this country to 'free' Western Islanders, who are doing as well under the Americans as the Irish under the British."

Carsonite Loses

LONDON, June 10.—In the parliamentary election held yesterday for the vacant seat in East Antrim, Ireland, a defeat for the regular Unionist faction, headed by Sir Edward Carson, resulted.

The victor was Mr. Hanna, independent Unionist, who polled 5714 votes as against 7419 for Mr. Moore, Unionist, and 1573 for Mr. Legg, Liberal.

In the last parliamentary election for the eastern division of Antrim, Brigadier-General R. C. A. McCalmont, Unionist, polled 15,206 votes as compared with 851 votes for D. Dumigan, the Sinn Fein candidate, General McCalmont and Mr. Dumigan were the only candidates.

Wilson Gets Senate Resolve

PARIS, June 10.—Secretary Lansing has received cabled copies of the United States senate resolutions asking for the text of the German treaty and requesting a hearing before the peace conference for Edward de Valera and other Irish delegates.

Secretary Lansing has referred the resolutions to President Wilson, who has not yet announced his decision.

U. S. BUSINESS MEN TO VISIT JAPAN

TOKIO, May 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—At a banquet given here last night by Wallace M. The banquet was attended by many Japanese high in the nation's various activities. Co-operation in the effort to solve the mutual problems confronting the two races, was pledged by the speakers.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MEDICINE CONVENTION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10.—Dr. T. A. Williams of Washington, D. C., told the American Academy of Medicine in annual convention here today that industrial leaders, presidents of universities and other educators, were obtuse to the preventable losses by functional nervous diseases. The war, he said, has demonstrated the rapid curability of these cases where properly dealt with.

"It all depends," Dr. Williams said, "upon placing the patient under proper conditions, differentiating the various psychological conditions, and devising and organizing ways of dealing with each kind. Industrial leaders already have realized the importance of physical hygiene in all these fields. They must now realize that psychological hygiene is also in need of skilled management. Not only will efficiency be increased, but content also."

ALLIED SEAPLANES DROP BOMBS ON RED CRAFT

KEM, Northern Russia, Monday, June 9.—Allied seaplanes attacked four Bolshevik craft on Lake Onega, south of here, yesterday. The bombs dropped by the seaplanes did not hit the Bolshevik boats, but the machine guns carried by the aircraft raked the decks of the lake boats and silenced the anti-aircraft guns which were mounted there. The Bolshevik flotilla fled and was pursued for a great distance. One allied plane returned to its base, reloading bombs and reloading the others in the pursuit. After the engagement, all the allied machines returned.

Separate sealed proposals will be received from local contractors only, at the office of the Commissioner of Public Property and Buildings at City Hall on Monday, June 16, 1919, at 12 m. in respect for the construction of an addition to the C. W. Morey School on Pine and Wilder streets, in accordance with plans and specifications furnished by Henry L. Rourke, Architect.

The work will be let in eight (8) separate contracts as follows: 1.—General Contract Work. 2.—Carpenter Work. 3.—Plumbing. 4.—Heating and Ventilating. 5.—Plastering. 6.—Electrical Work. 7.—Painting. 8.—Sheet Metal Work.

Proposals must be made on the blank forms provided with the specifications and no bid will be accepted if presented in any other form. Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check for 5 per cent. of the price mentioned in the proposal. Said check to be made payable to the city treasurer of the city of Lowell, and to be forfeited to the city should the successful bidder refuse or fail to sign the contract within ten days after being notified that said contract is ready for signature.

Each contractor must be prepared to give bond to the amount of 25 per cent. of the contract price, conditioned on the satisfactory execution of the contract as required by plans and specifications. Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the building department and at the office of the architect.

The Commissioner of Public Property and Buildings reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, or to accept the proposal which seems for the best interests of the City of Lowell.

GEORGE F. MARCHAND, Commissioner of Public Property and Buildings.

NEW ENGLAND UNITS ON WAY TO BOSTON

BOSTON, June 10.—The transport Calamaries, which has been ordered diverted here from New York, with troops from Brest, is bringing home several New England units, it was announced today. The 211 officers and men aboard include headquarters of the 162nd Infantry Brigade, and organizations of the 201st Engineer Brigade. Most of these should will be discharged from Camp Devens.

HEARINGS ON COURT MARTIAL INVESTIGATION

CHICAGO, June 10.—Hearings of the special committee of the American Bar association, investigating courts martial were resumed today with Major Frederick Brown, president of the Illinois Bar association, and Capt. John W. Beckwith and Col. Eugene R. West, head of the legislative section of the judge advocates office in Washington, on the list of witnesses to be heard. It was understood that the committee would continue its hearings here all week and then proceed to Washington to draw up official recommendations.

CARDINAL TO SPEAK AT BIG IRISH MEETING

BOSTON, June 10.—Utterances of memorable importance are expected at the meeting tonight in Mechanics building under the direction of the Irish Freedom Fund association, as Cardinal O'Donnell last evening informed the advisory committee of the association that he will positively speak at the meeting.

It is expected that the meeting will be one of the greatest gatherings of men of Irish blood and persons in sympathy with the cause of Irish freedom ever held in this city. Col. Edward L. Logan will preside. His address, though brief, will be a strong statement of views with regard to the claims of Ireland to be free. Colonel Logan will be introduced by John Morton of Dorchester, temporary chairman.

Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia, ex-Pennsylvania public service commissioner and one of the three Irish-Americans who sought an audience of the peace conference to present the cause of the Irish nation, will be the principal speaker. He will present an interesting report of events in Paris, London and in Ireland as they relate to the Irish claims for freedom. Justice Daniel F. Cohan of the New York supreme court, who presided at the great convention in Philadelphia that voted to raise $1,000,000 for a fund to counteract the British propaganda that, it is alleged, is seeking to prejudice the Irish cause in the opinion of the American public, will review the claims of Ireland to nationhood.

The advisory committee of the Irish Freedom Fund association held a long session yesterday afternoon and evening at the City club, concluding its arrangements for the meeting. Plans were made for an overflow meeting in the vicinity of the hall, should conditions require.

There will be no tickets of admission other than a few issued to officers of Irish societies and affiliated organizations. The platform will be reserved for guests, including mayors of cities of Greater Boston, members of congress and the clergy, of whom scores will be present.

From 7.30 to 8 there will be a band concert, and just before the speaking the entire audience will sing the Star Spangled Banner.

The committee which has arranged the meeting is John Morton, chairman; John H. H. McNamee, ex-mayor of Cambridge, who is treasurer of the fund; Daniel Foley, secretary; Mayor Edward W. Quinn of Cambridge; Edward F. McSweeney, ex-chairman of the port directors; Attorney Daniel T. O'Connell and Jas. O'Sullivan of Lowell.

MOUNT VERNON ARRIVES WITH 6000 TROOPS

NEW YORK, June 10.—Bringing 5354 troops, including headquarters of the Sixth division, the transport Mount Vernon arrived today from Brest. Major General Walter H. Gordon, commanding the Sixth division, and Brig. Gen. Lucius L. Duffee of the 12th Infantry brigade, were the ranking officers aboard.

The Mount Vernon brought three complete units: the 54th Infantry, the 11th field artillery, and the Sixth field battalion signal corps.

Of the Sixth division headquarters troops, 53 officers and 211 men were aboard.

GREAT SUPER-CIRCUS BIGGEST IN WORLD

The Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Shows combined form a perfect city—the biggest "metropolis" of white-tops that has ever toured America. It visits a different locality almost every day and, before the present tour is ended, will have been built and torn down again more than 300 times and travelled upward of 500,000 miles. Yet it moves without fuss or noise—the marvel of all who visit it.

When this great, new institution is annexed to this city it will add to the local population hundreds upon hundreds of strange people from all countries. The "carnival town" will cover acres of ground and in addition to its people, will comprise regiments of horses made up of the finest equines from the two big circuses that are now consolidated in one; most of the elephants in America, and a wonderful menagerie composed of such innovations as a herd of eight giraffes. A LIFETIME OF SUFFERING

Prevented by "Fruit-a-lives"
The Wonderful Fruit Medicine

53 MAISONNETTE ST., HULL.
"In my opinion, no other medicine is so good as 'Fruit-a-lives' for Indigestion and Constipation."

For years, I suffered with these dreaded diseases, trying all kinds of treatments until I was told I was incurable.

One day a friend told me to try 'Fruit-a-lives' (or Fruit Liver Tablets). To my surprise, I found this medicine gave immediate relief, and in a short time I was all right again."

of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined differs in both character and immensity from any ever transported before. Many trailers are required to handle this mammoth institution. The main tent is easily the largest ever constructed. It has been built to accommodate such arena innovations as an elephant act which numbers a "quarter of a million pounds of actors." Nothing like this presentation has ever before been attempted in the annals of amusement. At the finish of this wonderful act the great array of ponderous actors completely fill one entire side of the great hippodrome track.

A remarkable pageant opens the main tent program, in which a myriad of actors, participate. Gorgeous costumes, many wondrous carved vehicles, scores of beautiful horses and an endless array of characters make famous in song and story are introduced.

Knights, jesters, dancers and ladies fair march by. Different sections of the magnificent pageant tell the story of well remembered tales. The arena numbers embrace the cream of the world's greatest circus stars. There are many riders headed by such equestrians as the famous May Wirth, the Davenport, the Hammonds and the McPherson clan of Scottish horsemen. There are high wire artists without equal led by Bird Millman, "queen of the air." There are aerialists who number such names as Ernest Clark, the Seligman-Silton troupe and the world famous Klarkians. And these are but a few of the many. Of course there are clowns—scores of the funniest; a vast array of dumb actors including five troupes of trained seals, stunts acts and no end of clever dogs, ponies and wonderful pigs, monkeys and birds. Exhibitions are to be given here, Monday, June 16.

NATURALIZATION PAPERS

METHODIST CENTENARY

Money Still Pouring In For Centenary Fund, Which Is
Oversubscribed

BOSTON, June 10.—More than $1,250,000 over-subscribed is reported in the Methodist centenary drive for $105,000,000, it was announced by Dr. J. I. Bartholomew, executive secretary of New England area, yesterday at Boston headquarters. With only about half the 20 areas reporting, $106,295,000 has been reported pledged by the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Methodist church south reports its quota of $35,000,000 also over-subscribed, having a total of $35,249,223 raised. In all, American Methodists have raised to date $141,544,253 and subscriptions are still pouring in. While New England has not yet reached its quota of $5,404,630 the daily records show a steady advance toward the goal. Worcester district reported an advance yesterday of $42,655, making a total of $122,715 raised, or 91 per cent of its quota. Dover, N. H., district reported 97 per cent of its quota of $150,605 in hand. There is about $150,000 on an annual basis, yet to be raised in New England.

Organized teams left the Boston headquarters yesterday for all parts of New England where churches have as yet failed to reach their quotas.

Churches in Greater Boston reported yesterday as having reached their quotas are Trinity church, West Medford, $7580; Glendale, Everett, $12,955; East Boston, $15,720; Daniel Dorchester Memorial, West Roxbury, $19,330. Ipswich is reported as over-subscribed 200 per cent.

INJUNCTION TO FORCE COMPANY TO RUN CARS

DETROIT, Mich., June 10.—Officials of the Detroit United Railways Co., whose motormen and conductors struck Saturday night, completely tying up traction service in this city and suburbs were today served with a mandatory and prohibitory injunction, issued late last night, to compel the company to resume operations of a portion of its system.

The injunction covers what are known as the "three-cent lines" and Mayor James Couzens announced he would seek another court order today to oblige the company to operate other lines now running under a day to day contract with the city.

President Frank W. Brooks of the traction company has issued a statement declaring he is prepared to fight such a move by the city.

A considerable part of the city is served by lines affected by the injunction and if operations are resumed on these, it is pointed out, the situation will be greatly relieved.

VERMONT WOMAN RECOMMENDS DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS AS BLOOD BUILDER

No person can remain in good health without sleep, yet there are thousands of people who are forced to exist on only a few hours' sleep that is broken, and often unrefreshing because of weak nerves, stomach distress and headaches. There is a limit beyond which they cannot go without a complete nervous breakdown and a rapid decline in health. The cause of this condition is generally weak blood and a treatment which will increase the quantity and improve the quality of the blood will usually restore the body to that normal, strengthening sleep is possible.

An excellent example of the value of a tonic in cases of this kind is the experience of Mrs. Edward Mayo, of No. 57 Cedar street, St. Albans, Vt. She says:

"I was all tired out and very nervous. I couldn't sleep well and what sleep I got didn't seem to refresh me. As a result each morning I seemed a little more exhausted than the day before. I also had severe headaches and my stomach was disordered. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and procured a box. In a short time my appetite improved and my nerves gained strength. I continued the treatment until I was able to sleep well. I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they helped me greatly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, postpaid, on receipt of price. Write for the free booklet on nervous disorders and diet.—Adv.

LABOR PARTY DECLARES ADHESION TO THE "THIRD INTERNATIONAL OF MOSCOW"

CHRISTIANIA, June 10.—An extraordinary national conference of the labor party has declared adhesion to the "third international of Moscow" and passed resolutions to telegraph Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, that the conference insists that the government establish the right of asylum for political refugees.

The resolutions also state that the conference adheres to the declaration of a blockade against countries and governments attacking soviet Russia, and convey the hope that no Norwegian workers will assist trade in north Russia, Finland, the Baltic provinces or other countries which are being used as bases of operations against Russia.

LOWELL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OUTING

The fourth annual field day and outing of the boys' departments of the Lowell Vocational school will be held at the Genna club grounds next Friday. The young men will leave Lowell on the 5.50 Tynsboro car and the morning will be given over to a series of ball games between teams representing the various departments of the school. At one o'clock lunch will be served and in the afternoon a series of track events run off, including a tug of war, relay races, etc. Later the baseball winners of the morning will play off for the supremacy of the school and a banner will be awarded to the winning team. Another banner will be awarded to the department whose members score the greatest number of points in the track events and a cup will be presented to the individual getting the largest number of points. Alumni of the school are cordially invited to be present.

The cause of this condition is generally weak blood and a treatment which will increase the quantity and improve the quality of the blood will usually restore the body to that normal, strengthening sleep is possible.

An excellent example of the value of a tonic in cases of this kind is the experience of Mrs. Edward Mayo, of No. 57 Cedar street, St. Albans, Vt. She says:

"I was all tired out and very nervous. I couldn't sleep well and what sleep I got didn't seem to refresh me. As a result each morning I seemed a little more exhausted than the day before. I also had severe headaches and my stomach was disordered. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and procured a box. In a short time my appetite improved and my nerves gained strength. I continued the treatment until I was able to sleep well. I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they helped me greatly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, postpaid, on receipt of price. Write for the free booklet on nervous disorders and diet.—Adv.

LABOR PARTY DECLARES ADHESION TO THE "THIRD INTERNATIONAL OF MOSCOW"

CHRISTIANIA, June 10.—An extraordinary national conference of the labor party has declared adhesion to the "third international of Moscow" and passed resolutions to telegraph Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, that the conference insists that the government establish the right of asylum for political refugees.

The resolutions also state that the conference adheres to the declaration of a blockade against countries and governments attacking soviet Russia, and convey the hope that no Norwegian workers will assist trade in north Russia, Finland, the Baltic provinces or other countries which are being used as bases of operations against Russia.

LOWELL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OUTING

The fourth annual field day and outing of the boys' departments of the Lowell Vocational school will be held at the Genna club grounds next Friday. The young men will leave Lowell on the 5.50 Tynsboro car and the morning will be given over to a series of ball games between teams representing the various departments of the school. At one o'clock lunch will be served and in the afternoon a series of track events run off, including a tug of war, relay races, etc. Later the baseball winners of the morning will play off for the supremacy of the school and a banner will be awarded to the winning team. Another banner will be awarded to the department whose members score the greatest number of points in the track events and a cup will be presented to the individual getting the largest number of points. Alumni of the school are cordially invited to be present.

VERMONT WOMAN RECOMMENDS DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS AS BLOOD BUILDER

No person can remain in good health without sleep, yet there are thousands of people who are forced to exist on only a few hours' sleep that is broken, and often unrefreshing because of weak nerves, stomach distress and headaches. There is a limit beyond which they cannot go without a complete nervous breakdown and a rapid decline in health. The cause of this condition is generally weak blood and a treatment which will increase the quantity and improve the quality of the blood will usually restore the body to that normal, strengthening sleep is possible.

PRODUCTION, ADVERTISING, PROSPERITY

The United States Department of Labor says: "Let's continue production and insure prosperity."

Well spoken and well advised. But the thing we produce must be advertised. The deaf and dumb man, poor fellow, doesn't get much attention until somebody runs over him. The result of production must be advertised for the reason that prosperity is only attained because the thing produced is skillfully advertised.

Whether you like it or not, Mr. Business Man, the public depends on advertisements as its guide to the thing it may buy. This is a safe bunch and if you refuse to believe it from us, ask the merchant who is changing his small, antiquated cash register, for a larger one.

With equitable relations obtaining between the worker and the employer, there will be no question as to the quality and the quantity of production in all lines. And there will be no question of a widely distributed prosperity. If the product reaches its market by means of advertising.

In advertising in Lowell, you have to start at the root of efficient and far-reaching method. You are reaching 50 per cent of the homes of Lowell when you contract for space in

RADICALS INJURE LABOR

If there are any men in this country who think they can advance any reform by the use of the bomb or even by an attempt to intimidate the courts, they are greatly mistaken.

In 1886, the eight-hour day seemed within grasp of the Knights of Labor, the greatest union of its day, and the pioneer of the present Federation of Labor. Its officers became alarmed at its amazing growth and temporarily closed its doors to new members.

Newly formed labor parties were gaining new victories and a new era seemed about to dawn when the Haymarket riots and bomb outrages of May 1 occurred.

The years that have since elapsed have not fully cleared away the effects and the counter charges of that outbreak. One of the results was that the eight hour movement, which before seemed on the point of realization, died out. The Knights of Labor lost its grip, divided and soon passed out of existence, although it had no part in the Chicago events.

A great wave of reaction followed during which the trust movement developed and private interests got a great hold upon the resources of the country.

It took twenty years for labor to recover from the loss of sympathy and the shock caused by the bombing tragedy at Chicago, although labor was not responsible for what the anarchists did.

Thus the bombs barred progress as they always do. Victory for the workers depends upon the growth of democratic power, not upon a resort to violence.

The bomb was the weapon used against czarism in Russia, but the triumph of the revolution so brought about has placed power in the hands of men even more bloody and unscrupulous than was Czar Nicholas. The old regime is surpassed in terror, atrocity and plunder by the sway of Trotsky and Lenin.

This is a dictatorship of the proletariat, undoubtedly what the bomb plotters in this nation want to bring about; but be they socialists, anarchists or imported Bolsheviks, they will find themselves in a losing game. One other attempt at assassination such as the last would lead to summary action and instead of waiting to bring the culprits when found to court, the nearest lamp-post might be utilized. But no civilized community wants any resort to violence unless nothing else will do.

Violence is the reaction of violence. Suppression of free speech leads to violent methods; but the right of free speech must not be understood to permit treasonable utterances which are the stock in trade of anarchy and Bolshevism.

Labor is always the greatest loser by social violence or by advocating revolutionary doctrines. President Campers, as head of the American Federation of Labor, has been a great power for good because he has always fought the socialist element in the labor unions. In doing so and in adopting a similar attitude towards the I.W.O. and other dangerous organizations, he will simply guide his followers along the straight and open path to the final success which at present seems to await labor organizations. There is to be a greater spirit of co-operation between them and a better mutual understanding than ever before, and all this will aid alike both labor and capital and will also operate for the benefit of the nation at large.

RECKLESS AUTO DRIVING

It would be well, in our opinion, if the police started a crusade against reckless auto drivers. Such a crusade should not be directed solely against speeding, but should deal with the men who, in case of the slightest obstruction, take the wrong side of the street to get ahead, and with that other class of reckless drivers who shoot out from narrow side streets into main thoroughfares without any signal of their approach, as if courting death or collision.

Instances of both kinds are very numerous and are the cause of most of the auto accidents in cities. Some drivers do not seem to have any regard for the rules of the road if their ears are duly insured against accident and if, in addition, the owners are insured against liability.

At 1 o'clock on Sunday, a serious collision was narrowly averted at the corner of Paige and Bridge streets through the alertness of a driver who, having passed from Merrimack square, was rounding the end of an electric car standing on Paige street, when he was met squarely by a powerful car coming briskly into Bridge street, from Paige, on the wrong side of the street. The driver of the big car did not even sound his horn and a collision was inevitable, but for the fact that the other car practically leaped out of the way, crossing the sidewalk in front of Meigs' store to escape the crash. The man in the big car drove on, as if nothing had happened, and nobody had the tact to take his register number. This is a fair illustration of how a great many accidents are caused by men who think everybody else should clear off the road when they approach.

Complaints have been made of auto drivers dashing into crowds while boarding electric cars, so that the people have to jump for their lives. It seems that the police should get hold of some of these reckless drivers and have them dealt with as the law provides. Nothing else will teach some of them to exercise due caution on the public highways.

S.A.T.C. PROTEST

While the state legislature means well in offering $100 bonus to the men who served in the war, it has erred in discriminating against the Students' Army Training corps, which responded to the government call quite as readily as did their seniors. So far as the term "student" applied, it was a misnomer for the reason that the only subjects of study given any practical attention were those required in training young men for officers. Had the course continued a year, it might have amounted to something, but terminating after a few months, it simply spoiled the entire year for the young men. Such of them as could not remain at college returned home to find, in many cases, that their former employment was not available. Had the war continued a few months longer, many of these young men might have been on their way overseas. They were in training for service and should be treated in all respects as the young men who were in training at Camp Devens or any of the other camps.

They will regard this action of the legislature, if persisted in, as a flagrant and very unjust piece of discrimination and they will be heard from in due time in reference to it.

The S.A.T.C. was instituted by the government, recognized as an important branch of the service, the members of which were considered volunteers, an honor to which even the drafted men cannot lay claim.

It is not for the Massachusetts legislature to adopt any course calculated to brand this class of volunteers as slackers. The young men are not likely to submit to the imputation without a vigorous protest.

THE FOURTH

If the contemplated plans do not miscarry, we shall have a real old-fashioned celebration of the Fourth—now more glorious perhaps than ever, for never before has this nation held such a commanding place among the nations of the earth. The celebration in this case, however, will be to honor our heroes in the recent war and in that light, it will be an outpouring of patriotic fervor and gratitude to God that we have escaped the German peril and that the peace that is about to be concluded will be the first step to that longed for era when nations will become amenable to law and join in bringing about universal peace.

THAT "RACE WAR"

There was no race war on the North common and there will be none. The brawl referred to as such was a clash between the rowdies of different nationalities. Sensible people do not encourage one faction to enter into conflict with another, nor do they approve of it. Every good citizen is hopeful that every man who breaks the law on the North common or anywhere else by promoting factional strife, will be arrested without any discrimination on account of nationality. The disturbing elements on that common must realize that they are in serious business when they start a riot or when they interfere with a police officer in discharge of his duty.

When the Boston Globe asked its readers if they were getting sick of eating strawberry shortcake, the paragraph ought to have borne the fact in mind that some of its readers haven't even started in on shortcake yet. It takes the salaries Boston newspapermen get to be able to afford strawberries at 40 cents per!

The Boston Herald cynically objects to jailers and underlakers putting up posters at their respective places of business bidding returning soldiers "Welcome home." The Herald errs. These posters are a demonstration of patriotism and ought not to be regarded as an invitation even by the cynical Herald man.

The health "crusade" conducted in the fourth grade of the local grammar schools is valuable even as an experiment. If the laws of health be impressed upon the children of a single grade, it is evident that eventually all the children will have benefited thereby, as all have to pass through that grade.

Dr. Gatsopoulos has won the gratitude of his fellow countrymen by his success in promoting the Hellenic movement and in securing other concessions for Greece. The Greeks, like the Poles, have reason to rejoice in the new glory that has come to their motherland.

Every father knows that a weed is more hardy than a cultivated plant because it has to make its own way without petting, and yet he shields his son from hardship and calls it love.

Civilization isn't entirely faultless when it impels us to spend billions for organized slaughter and can't interest us in a proposition to spend other billions for a national system of real roads.

People think the Jap a wonder because he can get a living from an acre of ground. An American could, also, if he could be satisfied with that sort of living.

The building boom that is now starting in Lowell is the forerunner of good times. That is one reason why everybody should help it along.

The city will do well not to take back any of the former commissioners who have been tried and found wanting.

It would be a good time now to have that school survey in order that the high school commission might get the benefit of its findings.

We are always glad to listen to a knocker if he can suggest something better to take the place of what he is knocking.

Sergeant York deserves well of fame, unless some publisher persuades him to write a book.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The May 17 number of the Ninth Infantry "Cootie," a newspaper published in Germany by the members of that regiment, has just been received with its customary quota of newsy matters, cuts and cartoons. Especially interesting is the philosophical view one of the writers takes on his prospects of staying in Germany a while longer and he gives the following bits of advice to his comrades: "This part of Germany is the most picturesque portion of Europe. How many people in the good old U.S.A. would spend a small fortune to be permitted to spend the summer on the Rhine! You men who have been over here for the last 18 months or more have had but very little opportunity to enjoy the beauties of nature. The opportunity is now at hand and each and every man should take advantage of it. It means only a couple of months' delay in returning to your homes and when you do return you will be able to give the folks an intelligent description of what Germany looks like."

The dogs must have been happy last week during the hot spell for styles do not affect them and there is no one to remark what a fright he is in his new suit or to tell him it is time to put on his straw hat. The peace treaty does not interest him for he knows that there are occasions when he will still fight for his bone as he always has. In the world of dogs, might still makes right, just as it does in the world of humans in many respects. He dares to express his approval or disapproval and disregards popularity with courage. He can sniff in the face of his enemies and rub against his friends with sincerity. He does not carry tail to the point of hypocrisy, but snarls when his lunch or his peace of mind is threatened, though friendly so long as it is warranted. He needs no money for food and lodging. Nature provides for him. He entertains no doubt as to the contrary. He needs no faith, but simply accepts things as they are. He does not have to be conventional and he can run into the water, splash, come out and shake it off where he pleases and not have to clear up the results. He dies, so do we all. He has lived as much in the life of a dog in his 15 years as we do in our three score years and ten. And yet—who wants to be a long haired dog in hot weather?

SEEN AND HEARD

It is not every woman who would have the courage to take a ride in an airplane.

"I couldn't find the combination to unhook it, so I cut it off," said a man in a Boston court, telling how he compelled his wife to stay at home by cutting off her skirt.

The judge asked the fellow in police court charged with assault and battery if he were guilty, and the poor fellow, looking bewildered, said: "How can I tell, your honor, till I've heard the evidence?"

Some Spud Planter

An Indianapolis woman had her first experience with a garden last year. She spaded the plot herself and then planted her seeds. Everything came up fairly well in due time except the potatoes, and they didn't come at all. In despair she went to a friend. To her she told of her failure to grow potatoes. "I bought such nice, smooth ones," she ended her plaint, "and I peeled them as nice as I could."

"Peel them!" ejaculated the friend. "Yes," agreed the amateur gardener. "I peeled them as nicely as I could and got out all the spuds just as if I were going to cook them. I did take out those great white beauties in the ground, but I did and they didn't come up, and—"

"Great Scott!" ejaculated the friend. And that was all.—Indianapolis News.

Very Clean Show

She is 76, but her powers of observation are as good as they were 40 years ago. She sees things.

Recently she came home from downtown and discovered her daughter preparing to go to the theatre in the evening. No questions were asked until the breakfast hour next morning.

"Did you see a good show last night?" Mrs. 76 asked.

"Splendid!"

"What was it? 'Mop Up'?"

"Mop Up?" Why, mother, that isn't a show—that's the slogan of the Victory loan committee."

"O, is that so? I thought it was a show. Certainly they have billed it like a circus. Yesterday, when I saw 'Mop Up' on all the billboards, I said to myself, 'Well, it should be a clean show.'"—Indianapolis News.

Elemental

Dear, I dissolved my soul today. I was a man of sound and sense. I tossed myself in sportive play. Back with the elements.

Then, as you came down the street, I threw myself where you should pass.

It was on me you set your feet: I was that patch of grass.

Then, as I lay and laughed at you, I saw you pat your perfumed hair. So I leaped up to bless it, for: I was that sunshine there.

Then came the rain, and oh, my chance! All around your face, I kissed and kissed.

You gave me one reproving glance; I was that driven mist.

I whipped your ribbons round your waist. Your skirts around your silken knees; I folded you, as though embraced; I was that tickling breeze.

Tomorrow, I again shall be plain, said soul of human style. But you shall wonder, as you smile: The joyance of my smile! —EDMUND VANCE COOKE. (Copyright, 1918, by N.E.A.)

CLOSE OF LOCAL IRISH FUND CAMPAIGN

The local drive conducted by the United Irish societies to raise $10,000 for the cause of Ireland's freedom came to a successful close last evening when team workers met in Hibernian hall and reported their totals to Treasurer Thomas J. Fitzgerald. A deficit of more than $600 was made up by Humphrey O'Sullivan who had promised sometime previous that he would make up whatever was lacking when the drive should finally close.

Chairman James O'Sullivan presided and a feature of the meeting was the vote to send a letter of thanks to Senators Lodge and Walsh for the stand they took on the Irish question. A vote of thanks was extended to Treasurer Fitzgerald as well as to the team workers, especially the women. The committee will be kept intact for future needs. Appreciation was likewise extended to the clergy, the general public and the press for the support given the drive.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Ivan Bankhoff & Co. get away from the stereotyped Russian dancing act in their offering at Keith's this week and in its stead present an up-to-the-minute spectacle of ballet nature, embracing in 15 minutes the best things one would get from a performance by a full-fledged company.

"The Dancing Master" is the title of the piece and is the excuse for the little plot there is to the series of dances. Bankhoff is supposed to be a dancing teacher; his pupil is a successful young man of dark features answering to the name of Miss Phoenix. The act opens with her learning the most elementary steps and in no time progresses to the state where she is an artist herself. In all her numbers she is under the perfect control of her teacher and no matter how whirlwind her gyrations, they cease in a second at the signal of the dancing master. It is obvious that the young woman has learned her art from Bankhoff himself; her every movement is a reproduction of one of his.

But Miss Phoenix is not the whole act; by any means. For period Bankhoff appears alone and his demonstration of bodily control in the midst of what seems to be a mad whirl of the most elementary steps and in no time progresses to the state where she is an artist herself. In all her numbers she is under the perfect control of her teacher and no matter how whirlwind her gyrations, they cease in a second at the signal of the dancing master. It is obvious that the young woman has learned her art from Bankhoff himself; her every movement is a reproduction of one of his.

From opera ballet to opera singing the audience is brought by Sybil Vane, coloring soprano of considerable ability. Miss Vane chooses some of the better known opera selections for her repertoire and now and then works in one that is known only to devotees of this form of singing. Excellent diction, simple personality and continual control make her most acceptable to a vaudeville audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel-Burne have a domestic comedy offering of snow white and interesting situations. Its purity does not detract from its cleverness or brightness but rather accentuates it. The setting is a sleep broken wall of a prehistoric era. It seems that the wife in the piece had planned to stay at her mother's that night, but her husband, who is a millionaire, had arranged a little party of his own. Something went wrong and the wife stayed at home. When her husband returns and finds all kinds of complications and situations. Eventually things straighten out.

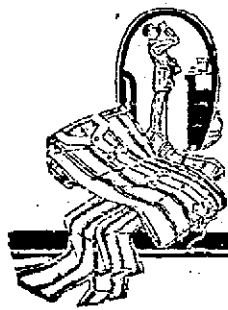

Joe and Agnes Riley are excellent Irish comedians, who, through the hand at yesterday's performance and now they stray off the beaten path into the byways of popular numbers. Several have been introduced in the course of the offering.

Doc O'Neil, a clever entertainer when he is feeling good, was under the weather yesterday due to a severe cold. However, he did not quit and succeeded in demonstrating many of the good things within him that would be more evident as the week wears on. Grace and Eddie Parks in "On the Bridal Path" are capable singers and dancers and Edora's singing sensation closes the bill in great style.

The Kinograms have their usual quota of interesting news features. Good seats for remaining performances may be obtained in advance at the box office, Phone 28.

"Salome," one of William Fox's latest screen productions, a play of real merit in which the famous Theda Bara is featured in the title role, is being presented at the head of the program at the Strand theatre for the first three days of the week. This wonderful presentation with the other enjoyable numbers form one of the best programs presented at this theatre in a long time.

"Salome" is a very remarkable picture, depicting the blood stained career of the ruthless princess, the murder of the high priest, the execution of the queen and the death of the king, which have removed all but one salacious scene from the play. The picture is a masterpiece of the art of the screen. The play is a wonderful one and it affords Miss Bara an excellent opportunity to demonstrate her talent as a star. The production of the film has cost more than a million dollars, for over 5000 persons are engaged in the making of it. The picture is a masterpiece with lovely sets of good photo-plays. Gladys Leslie is shown in a delightful snappy and enjoyable comedy drama, "A Satchel in El Dorado," an adaptation from the recent Broadway stage success of the same name. In addition there is also a two-part Vitaphone picture, which is very pleasing, while the Universal Weekly contains many interesting views of current events. The musical numbers are very enjoyable.

RAIN MESSED THINGS UP YESTERDAY

Unseasonable weather, cold and threatened rain, caused the postponement of all New England games yesterday. Portland remained in town over the week-end and was scheduled to meet Hayden's team at Spaulding park, but moved on to Lawrence when the weather continued unfavorable. Haverhill, in last place, but fighting mad, comes to Lowell today and will make a valiant attempt to spike the Lowell travelers.

The Call'em

The "batting order shift" which occurred in the Lowell-Lawrence high baseball game at Spaulding park last week is still with us and is furnishing considerable nutritious food for spicy comment. Both the Lawrence Tribune and Telegram carried snobs pertaining thereto on Saturday, the former printing a letter written in support of himself and team by Coach Walter A. Sidley of the Lawrence school. Among other things the letter calls attention to the fact that mention was made in The Call-em of a similar shenanigan used by Boston Latin against Lawrence earlier in the season, while in reality it was the Boston High School of Commerce which lawrenced Lawrence's team.

Unintentional Error
Continuing the letter says: "By an unintentional oversight on my part in the eighth inning, I miscalculated in the wrong order instead of Ashkenazy. In other words, I miscalculated the batting order as he had been doing from the first inning instead of following Archibald, who started the game as a pitcher, but was shifted to right field. The error was first noticed by Lowell newspaper men who in turn brought it to the attention of Coach Donahue. When Mr. Donahue called Empire Ryan's attention to the wrong order, it was then too late for redress, as under the rules the pitcher must be raised before the play. Following the coach's error, the pitcher became a batsman. As coach of the Lawrence team I met the protest of Coach Donahue to the umpire, and the three of us standing together at the plate and stated that my error was unintentional."

No Conference
We have no reason to doubt the sincerity of Sidley's letter in substance, but we do seriously take issue with him when he says that a conference was held at the home plate between Coach Donahue, the umpire and himself. As we recall it, Sidley never left the bench for Coach Donahue. He was on the corner of the press box and called over to the Lawrence dugout. All right, Sidley, we will let you get away with it, but beat you when you want to play the game. Moreover, it was the attitude of all the Lawrence people regarding the play that rankled me at the time of "sorry you broke your neck, kid, ha ha."

Amateur Or Professional?
Under the pertinent caption of "Lowell's Call'em," The Sporting News of the Lawrence Telegram calls The Call'em to account for saying that there were four Lawrence newspaper men at the game and that they must have been visualizing things to mistake paper men. Are you sure you aren't taking a walk at some of your own brothers? They admitted the accusation when we hurried it at 'em.

Tough Luck, Rube
Somehow or other Rube Marquard has never seemed to continue very long sessions of popularity or success. He is a jinx magnet, and the more he is around, the more the jinx seems to work. He broke his leg, just about pulls down the shades for the remainder of this season, at least. Brilliant at times, especially during the Giants' prolonged winning streak of a few years back, Rube has slipped back to the mediocre class and then suddenly faded up again. With all the ear marks of a star his road in the big leagues has been stony.

SULLIVAN LEADER OF LOWELL TEAM

Although his average of .391 is 53 points lower than last week, Sullivan still continues to blaze a trail as the lowly Hayden's hitter. This mark includes the game of Saturday, June 7. The averages follow:

Player	Ab	R	Av
Sullivan	23	9	.391
Eckstein	26	5	.308
Hayden	25	16	.280
Devon	21	3	.212
Penfold	22	4	.273
Baker	22	6	.273
Rossie	13	13	.265
Cline	19	5	.263
Pierotti	16	1	.250
Scanlon	29	7	.241
Davis	55	13	.236
Lynch	41	9	.219
Gaudette	19	1	.200

Lynch and Devon are tied with 11 each for run getting honors, but Eckstein, who has averaged in only seven games, has crossed the plate seven times and bids fair to take the lead here long. The averages follow: Sullivan, 53 and losses at; Hayden, 19 points gained; Penfold, 22 points lost; Devon, 24 points lost; Cline, 25 points lost; Pierotti, 16 points lost; Scanlon, 29 points lost; Davis, 55 points lost; Lynch, 41 points lost; Gaudette, 19 points lost.

LOWELL MEN AT TOURNAMENT

Many Lowell golfers were included in the large gallery which watched the first rounds of the National Open at Pine Burn yesterday and more will go down today and tomorrow. They were divided in interest between Miles Murray, Outmet and Chick Evans, although they were most enthusiastic about the playing of Charlie Hottner, the 22-year-old Philadelphia professional, whose score of 72 tied the course record. The foursomes tied the course record, having a tendency to slow up the long hitters as the balls had little of any roll. J. B. Hyslop, playing from the Vesper, County Club, went through the qualifying round and scored a 51. He was the only local man to complete one hundred and twenty-five players turned in cards.

BRAVES DROP ANOTHER TO THE CUBS

Boston dropped another game to the Cubs yesterday, the score being 3 to 2 in 11 innings. Scott and Maranville were responsible for the setback. In the 11th inning Maranville fumbled Mann's grounder and Merkle followed with a single. Faskert laid down a bunt which Scott picked up and threw wild to first allowing Mann to score the winning run.

Rube Marquard broke a leg when he stumbled over second base in the Brooklyn-Cincinnati game, won by the latter team, 7 to 2. Marquard fell after making a two-base hit and had to be carried from the field. He will probably be out of the game for the rest of the year. Yesterday's victory gave the Reds a clean sweep of the series. St. Louis made it four straight from Philadelphia when they took the last game of the series, 6 to 1. A one-sided game by Heathcote, who robbed Baird of a home run, was the feature of the game. Donak was hit hard but received sensational support.

AMATEUR BASEBALL

The Barry A.C. challenges any 16-year-old team in the city, the White Eagles or St. Peter's S.S. preferred. Answer through this paper.

The Glendale Juniors challenge any 14 or 16-year-old team. Answer through this paper.

The undefeated Winter A.C. challenges the Draught A.C. to a game to be played on the South common next Saturday afternoon.

The Crystals won their fourth straight game Saturday when the Elmores were defeated in an overtime game, 14 to 13. Any 14 or 16-year-old team will be welcomed.

ABOUT THE BOXERS

Joe Egan, who claims the bantamweight championship, has just won a decision over "Happy" Conley of Lowell in ten rounds last night before the Armory, N. H. Forasmuch, N. H. Greek Alger of Boston and Art Williams of New Bedford went 10 rounds to a draw.

Jess Willard tried to get E. P. Egan, national amateur heavyweight champion, for one of his sparring partners, but Egan refused to fight him. Egan went to compete in the inter-allied boxing tournament.

Charlie Parker and Young Kloby met in Boston next Monday night in the feature bout. Both handed K.O.'s to their opponents. Parker's fight interest is being aroused in the mill.

Herry Greb and Mike O'Dowd are likely to meet at Bridgeport, Conn., on July 4.

Just to show the public that their training stunts are not afternoon teas, Willard and Dempsey let sparring partners open up old scars and muscles up a bit.

A new step in local boxing matches is promised in Lawrence next Saturday afternoon when Henry Valter and Frankie Brill meet to box 12 rounds at O'Sullivan park. Outdoor matches are scarce hereabouts, but this stirring scrap ought to attract a whole lot of a crowd if the weather is right.

TENNIS TEAM

U. S. To Be Represented at Inter-Allied Games

The United States will have a tennis team in the matches to be held by representatives of the allied armies from June 22 to July 6 at Paris. Clarence J. Griffin and Willis B. Davis of San Francisco and Francis S. Garland of Pittsburgh left New York on May 4 with a party of athletes who are going overseas to try for places on the various teams.

The games were arranged at the invitation of General Pershing, who asked the allied nations to send representatives of their armies to Paris for this competition, which will include all branches of sport. Places on the teams are open only to men who have been in the army, although in the case of the United States it is not necessary that men shall have been overseas.

Griffin and Davis were on the 1918 ranking list in sixth and eighth places, respectively. They were the only two year to they took part in no tournaments in this country. Garland is a former junior champion and captain of the Yale tennis team. Captain V. Davis, of Washington and Lieut. Dean Mathey are in France and with Harold Beck, a Californian, have been playing in the inter-allied games just completed.

According to the plans as outlined here, the six players named and any others qualified as possible representatives of the United States will try for places on a team of three men. The team thus chosen will meet the teams of the other countries.

Some of matches already held in which Australian, French and British players took part, it is plain that the team from the United States will face the stiffest kind of opposition.

The plans contemplate returning the American players to the United States as soon as their matches are finished, so that they will be in this country for the more important events on the tennis schedule late in summer.

JOHN HYSLOP DEAD

Was Authority on Yachts and Measurement Rules

NEW YORK, June 10.—John Hyslop, retired American yachtsman, who in 1887 measured the Volunteer and Thistle for their race for America's Cup and who officiated in five of those international contests, died yesterday at the age of 85. Mr. Hyslop was an authority on yachts and framed the measurement rules which governed yacht racing for many years.

The lowly Athletics defeated Cleveland yesterday, 3 to 1, in the only American league game played, all others being called off because of cold weather or rain. Seibold outpitched Enzmann. Philadelphia earned all its runs, while the Athletics contributed to the scoring. Bobby Roth continued his hitting spree and got a single and a triple.

CUT OVER DEMPSEY'S EYE

Forces Challenger To Lay Off Boxing For Few Days—Willard Enjoys Road Work

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 10.—Because of danger of infection, Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, today decided not to allow Dempsey to do any more boxing until the wound over his eye inflicted in a training bout yesterday is thoroughly healed.

Physicians took two stitches in the wound which is just at the edge of the eyebrow. The skin was split in a contest a year ago and was reopened yesterday when Dempsey's negro sparring partner caught him a glancing blow with a left hook. Dempsey will continue his road work and other exercises until the wound is healed.

Willard said today that his training had never been so easy for him as it has been for his coming championship contest.

"Road work used to be punishment for the worst sort of me," he said. "My feet always seemed as heavy as lead and I was tired and lame at the finish. I used to confine myself to three miles of it. Now, however, it is really a pleasure. I went between five and six miles yesterday and felt fresh and strong at the end of the run."

"I honestly believe that I could get in condition within 10 days, if necessary, to defend my title."

COMMANDER ARRESTED AS GERMAN SPY

CAMP DEVENS, June 10.—It took Capt. John Ruckman of the 90th Division Headquarters, son of Brig.-Gen. John Ruckman, to tell some New Englanders something about their own boys that they hadn't heard before. As one of the most interesting escapades in which American doughboys participated, Capt. Ruckman told how the 301st Trench Mortar Battery of the old 16th Division, went right through the first line trenches of the 90th Division and established themselves in the village of Feyenooye, within 200 yards of the Germans.

The commander of the battery was arrested by 90th Division soldiers and brought back as a German spy mas-quering in American uniform. To prove that he was really an American officer, the 301st Trench Mortar Battery commander had to lead American intelligence officers out across No Man's Land to the position his battery occupied. Then they believed him.

BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION
The Baptist Sunday schools of the city will attend the annual convention at Methuen tomorrow, and a large delegation is expected to make the down river trip. The convention will be held in the Methuen Baptist church, and a special car will leave Merrimack square at 8.30 a. m. for the convention. Two sessions will be held during the day and another in the evening. Among the speakers will be Rev. A. R. Dills, Rev. A. C. Archibald and several other local preachers.

Before taking your train home from Boston get The Sun at either newsstand in the North station.

ARMY-NAVY FIELD

DAY ON SUNDAY

Extensive plans are being made for the Army-Navy field day to be held at Braves field, Boston, next Sunday afternoon. Hundreds of athletes from Camp Devens, First Naval district, army headquarters and other nearby posts and camps will compete. There will be a baseball game between two selected teams, Army against Navy. Admiral Dunn and Commandant Bush will be present and state officials have been invited. The boxes will be reserved for officers and invited guests, but the remainder of the large seating capacity will be free to the public.

AMERICANS LOST TO AUSTRALIANS

PARIS, Sunday, June 9.—The American tennis team lost both its singles matches to the Australians on Saturday in the tennis events of the inter-allied games.

G. L. Paterson, Australia, beat Watson Washburn, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. G. L. Paterson, 6-1, 6-3, 6-2. The Australians need but one of their three remaining contests to win the allied team championship.

WICKLAND OBTAINED BY THE YANKEES

AL Wickland, former Brave, has been obtained by the New York American League club from St. Paul of the American association in exchange for a Yankee player to be selected later in addition to playing with the Braves. Wickland has pastimed with Cincinnati and Chicago.

DETROIT, Mich., June 10.—Willie Mitchell, left hand pitcher of the Detroit club, upon whom waivers were issued recently, has been claimed by the New York Americans, President Frank Navin announced today.

AMERICAN BOXER WINS
LONDON, June 10.—Eddie McGorty, an American middleweight boxer, last night knocked out an English fighter, "Bandsman" Rice, in the first round of a 25-round bout. The fight took place at Blackpool, a summer resort on the Lancashire coast.

OUR WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Men From Overseas Remain in Army General Hospitals an Average of 32 Days

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Wounded soldiers from overseas remain in army general hospitals an average of 32 days and in base hospitals an average of 15 days before discharge, a statistical report issued today by Surgeon General Ireland indicated. Of the general hospitals, West Baden, Ind., has the highest averages for discharged patients staying there only 16 days as a rule. The institution at East View, N. Y., has the extreme record, with 57 days.

General Ireland said he hoped soon to close all hospitals except the few which could be operated by the personnel of the regular army medical corps, with the assistance of members of the temporary forces who desire to continue their work.

URGES ALL R.R. MEN TO PRACTICE ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Director General Hines has issued an appeal to all officers and employees of the railroads to practice strict economy in the use of railroad supplies and equipment and to increase the efficiency of their work, wherever possible in order to keep the government's loss under the present operating deficit as low as possible.

Mr. Hines appealed for assistance of officers and employees "demonstrating that the railroads may be operated successfully even though wages of its employees have been materially increased."

school's advantages, among all the men the school has ever graduated. The graduation exercises took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The address of welcome was made by A. G. Cunnock, chairman of the trustees. The principal address of the afternoon was delivered by Dr. Frederick W. Hamilton, member of the state board of education and former president of Tufts college.

The presentation of the medal annually given by the National Association of Cotton manufacturers was awarded by Rufus R. Wilson, secretary of the trustees. The announcement of awards and presentation of degrees and diplomas was made by President Charles H. Barnes of the school. A fine musical program was given by Hubbard's orchestra.

The graduates of this year's class, their homes, together with the subjects of theses they submitted as candidates for degrees awarded are as follows:

Arthur Julius Anderson, Concord, N. H., bachelor of textile chemistry. "Analytical Reaction of Cotton, Wool and Silk Fibres in Mixtures."
Carroll Lewis Brainerd, bachelor of textile chemistry. "Action of Alkalies and Soap on Wool."
Charles Arthur Everett, Methuen, bachelor of textile chemistry. "Preparation of Volamine R or Fast Acid Violet H. R."
Francis Earle Gooding, Lawrence, bachelor of textile chemistry. "The Possibilities of Etherification or Saponification of Cellulose and the Formation of a Dye-stuff by Sulphonation of the Resulting Compounds of the Etherification of Cellulose."
Norman Oliver Gould, Huntington, bachelor of textile engineering. "Standardization of Builder Motions for Cotton Twisters."
Arthur Norman Hart, Lowell, bachelor of textile chemistry. "Preparation of Primuline and a Study of the Production of Various Insoluble Azo Colors directly upon Cotton Fibre."
Hector Graham Macdonald, Lowell, bachelor of textile chemistry. "Study of the Action of Various Acids in Exhausting Acid Dyes from the Dye Bath."
Gilbert Roscoe Merrill, Lowell, bachelor of textile engineering. "The Effect of Reflectors on Light Distribution as Applied to Textile Manufacture." Thesis with Herbert Ellsworth Sunbury.
Frank Morrison Sanborn, West Kennebunk, Me., bachelor of textile engineering. "Study of Lighting Conditions in the Weave Room of a Cotton Mill."

WAR RISK BUREAU
REVERSES DECISION

(Special to The Sun)
WASHINGTON, June 10.—Congressman Rogers has secured from the war risk bureau a reversal of its former decision whereby men applying for insurance after they had been stricken by a fatal illness were counted as uninsured and their families lost the benefit of insurance.
Some days ago Mr. Rogers called specific attention to the case of Carl S. Swanson of West Acton, who died under those circumstances. Yesterday, Mr. Rogers received a letter from the department stating that the Swanson case would be reopened and a payment of the insurance made to his family. The reopening of such cases will be general, and wherever a case was regarded as invalid for the sole reason that the application was practically dead-ended, a reversal of the decision will follow and payments be made.
Mr. Rogers felt that the delay in nearly every instance was caused by red tape which the soldier could not and was not on account of negligence on his part, and that it was an injustice to the families of soldiers to permit the former ruling to stand. Thousands of cases throughout the country will be affected by this special order.

Money For High School

Continued
The following day unanimously adopted by the council. Ten days later the city clerk certified to its passage. On July 16 the council passed a vote authorizing the commissioner of streets and highways to enter into a contract with the Donnelly Iron Works for the repair of the Woburn street bridge, the amount involved not to exceed $2500. On August 2 the contract was approved by the council. The contract had been prepared by the law department of the city. Mr. O'Donnell then went on to show how his client had made preparations to proceed with the work but was hindered owing to the alleged failure of the city to close the bridge to travel. The result was that no work was actually done, despite the persistent efforts of the firm to carry out its part of the contract. Mr. O'Donnell said that Mr. Donnelly did not ask for the entire $2500 involved in the contract but only a reasonable compensation.

City Solicitor Regan was called upon and he said that he had talked the matter over with Mr. Donnelly at one time. At the time the contract was made, he said, there was no appropriation for the work in question owing to the fact that the attempted loan was not brought to a successful conclusion. Mr. Regan said he told Mr. Donnelly of this fact and the latter replied to the effect that the money end of it was of least interest to him.
The matter was finally referred to the law department and Commissioner Murphy.

The following hearings were held and the matters referred to the proper departments: Lowell Electric Light Corp., pole location in Nichols street, referred to Commissioners Marchand and Murphy; David Ziskind, relocation of electric light pole in Cambridge street, referred to Commissioners Marchand and Murphy; Samuel Orbach, garage and gasoline, 65 Middlesex street, referred to Commissioner Morse; Fred A. Maddox, gasoline, Pawlucket boulevard, referred to Commissioner Morse; Geo. A. Maynard, garage and gasoline, Powell and C streets, referred to Commissioner Morse; Rosa Ingham, garage and gasoline, 62 Robbins street, referred to Commissioner Morse; A. J. Couture, garage, 47-49 South Whipple street, referred to Commissioner Morse; William J. Lambert, gasoline, 565 Middlesex street, referred to Commissioner Morse.
The petitions of John Brady, gasoline, 155 Church street, and R. L. McAllister, garage and gasoline, 33-35 Concord street, were held for hearings July 1.

The following petitions were referred to Commissioner Murphy: Fred L. Carr, sidewalk, 1800 Middlesex street; Ethel M. Breen, sidewalk, Foster street; South Lowell Improvement association, that Carmine, Bolton and Acton streets be accepted; J. W. Whitehead et al, that a portion of Park street be oiled, and James F. Loughran, that the sidewalk in front of the premises at 455 High street be accepted.

The acceptance of John A. Stevens of his election as a member of the high school building commission was placed on file.

One Day Off in Eight

The communication to members of the council signed by Edward F. Plamagan and others, representing the Mutual Benefit and Protective Association

MRS HALPIN AND PILOT NIGHTENGAL

FIRST LOWELL WOMAN TO TAKE AIR RIDE

As far as can be learned, Mrs. A. J. Halpin, wife of Dr. Halpin of Chester street, is the first Lowell woman to undertake an air flight and she did this one sunny afternoon last week at Pemberton without the slightest trace of trepidation. At the end of 15 minutes when her pilot, Pilot Nightengale, formerly of the United States naval air service, brought his "ship" down across the stern of the Nantasket boat and let it settle on to the waters of the bay, Mrs. Halpin was most enthusiastic and wanted to go right up again and stay for an hour. But her daring had so aroused Dr. Halpin that he insisted on being the next passenger, so off he spun for 15 minutes and returned with the same feeling of exhilaration.

"I enjoyed every minute of it," said Mrs. Halpin. "I had always believed a person would feel terribly nervous and dizzy when really off the ground, but those sensations did not come to me once. I would love to stay at Pemberton all summer so I might go up every day."

tion of Lowell policemen and firemen, stating that unless the council took some action on the petition of members of the police department for one day off in eight, the petition should be considered withdrawn, was voted placed on file. This was a virtual rejection of the petition. Mayor Thompson, when questioned by Commissioner Murphy, said that he was not ready to make a report on the matter. He felt that the council should not be pinned down to any definite date for action on the matter.

On recommendation of the city solicitor the following claimants were given leave to withdraw: R. Elia Conaton, Agnes T. La Lachaur, Dora Loran, John J. Mahoney, John T. Moran, Mrs. J. Nolan, and William B. Fowler.
On recommendation of the law department it was voted to pay $100 apiece to H. N. Elliott, Walter E. Gurett and John A. Simpson for services rendered in connection with the extension of Dummer street.

Bath House and Comfort Station
An order providing for the borrowing of $26,000 for the construction of a public bath house on the bank of the Merrimack river and a comfort station on the South common was introduced, the money to be spent under the direction of the park commission. The mayor said that last year's attendance at the swimming pool on the Merrimack river was ample proof of the need of permanent quarters there. The park department planned to lay out the grounds in that vicinity and make them a part of a playground. The need of a comfort station on the South common was self-evident, he said.

Commissioner Murphy suggested that the bath house be named after the late Harry W. Howe, a former member of the waterways commission who had done excellent work for the children of the city in this line. The mayor thought the suggestion a good one and said that the park department would undoubtedly consider it. It was unanimously voted to adopt the loan order.
Licenses were voted granted to Patrick Keyes for garage and gasoline at 45 Waugh st. and to the Central fire station for gasoline in Middle street on recommendation of Commissioner Morse.

To Abate Taxes
It was voted to recommend to the assessors that they abate the 1919 taxes of property owners on land to be taken for the erection of the city's memorial auditorium, providing that said owners give the city a confirmation deed and that they receive less than 25 per cent. in excess of the assessed value of the property. Mayor Thompson explained that the city will get rental revenue from the buildings from the time they are actually taken over until they are demolished and for this reason it was not considered fair to levy taxes on the present owners.
The disclaimer submitted by the Locks and Canals last week providing that the city should discharge no sewage into the Pawtucket canal through a pipe about to be laid in

Fletcher street and Western avenue was approved by the council on the recommendation of the law department.

A petition signed by a score of residents of Belvidera asked that the city acquire land on the northerly side of Stackpole street bordering on the southerly bank of the Merrimack river, extending from the land owned or leased by the owners of St. John's hospital and thence running easterly to Alder street. The petitioners stated that they felt this land should be preserved as a park or place of recreation and that the creation of buildings on it should be discouraged for the reason that it affords a beautiful view of the Merrimack river. The petition was referred to the mayor.

Fourth of July Celebration

The council voted to stage a Fourth of July celebration in the nature of a reception to returned soldiers and sailors, the details to be worked out later. An appropriation for preliminary expenses will be passed at the next meeting of the council.
Following the approval of monthly bills the council adjourned at 11:35 until Tuesday at 10 a. m.

MONEY FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Commission Asks Authority To Borrow Outside City's Debt Limit

About $1,500,000 Needed For School—Meeting Today of Municipal Council

As the direct outcome of a meeting held last evening at city hall at which were present members of the high school building commission, the municipal council, the school committee and legislators from this district, a petition signed by members of the first three bodies was today forwarded to Representative Victor F. Jewett to be presented to the legislature at once, asking that the high school commission be authorized to expend money borrowed outside the city's debt limit of an amount sufficient to complete the erection and equipment of the proposed new high school. No specific sum is stated in the petition as the members of the three bodies were not ready to go on record as favoring any set amount. Last evening's discussion, however, brought out the fact that a sum in the neighborhood of $1,500,000 more will be needed to complete the school.

Inasmuch as the legislature will accept no new business after Thursday of this week it was imperative that the petition should be presented as soon as possible. As soon as it passes through its various legislative stages and comes to the committee to decide its fate, the sum wanted will be specified.

The petition is signed by all members of the high school commission with the exception of John A. Stevens, who was out of town at the time of last evening's meeting, but who gave his consent to be put on record as favoring it. It is also signed by the members of the school committee and the municipal council. Members of the latter body signed the petition at this morning's regular meeting.

Other matters taken up at this morning's meeting included a hearing on the claim of the Donnelly Iron Works that it be reimbursed for the alleged failure of the city to carry out a certain contract providing for the repair of the Woburn street bridge; the virtual rejection of the petition of members of the local police department for one day off in eight and the vote to observe the Fourth of July with a military celebration in honor of returned soldiers and sailors.

Meeting in Detail

The meeting was called at 10.11 with all members present. The first business taken up was the signing of the petition to have the legislature consider the authorization of the high school commission to borrow sufficient money beyond the debt limit to build the city's new high school. Mayor Thompson said that the petition had been signed by members of the high school building commission as well as the school committee and it was felt that if it also bore the signatures of the members of the council it would have the solid front of the three bodies and thus command more attention in the legislature. The matter, he said, was merely a petition to admit the bill authorizing the borrowing of more money, to legislative discussion. He emphasized the need of immediate action as this year's legislature will consider no new business after Thursday. All the members of the council then signed the petition.

A hearing on the petition of the Lowell Electric Light corporation for permission to erect three poles in Walker street brought forth considerable discussion on the part of opponents of the petition and those in favor of it were also represented. The matter was finally referred to Commissioners Murphy and Marchand.

A hearing on the petition of the Donnelly Iron Works in connection with its contract with the city of Lowell for the supply and erection of structural steel for the repair of the Woburn street bridge was held. Hon. James E. O'Donnell appeared for the petitioner. He reviewed the history of the contract briefly, stating that on June 4, 1918, the city council submitted to the city treasurer for his approval an order providing for the appropriation of $6000 for the construction of the Woburn and Woburn street bridges. On June 10 the order was approved by the treasurer and

In many mills at present the first aid station is simply in the process of immature development, but in others it is a well established and busy agency, caring for many minor accidents during the day and serving as an immediate

Four Majors, Sixteen Captains, Four Adjutants and 16 Lieutenants Announced

Helen E. Harrison, Ames L. French, Edna L. Laurin and Ruth A. Walker of the junior class of the high school will lead the girls' battalions as majors next year, their appointments, along with those of 16 captains, four adjutants and 16 lieutenants, being announced at the close of school this noon. They have won their honors by dint of excellent work throughout the year and success in the competitive drill held last Friday afternoon, at which time they outscored 50 other girls who also were striving for topmost honors.

Miss Harrison, senior major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Harrison of Dracut, Miss French, major of the second battalion, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon A. French of 341 Main street; Edna Laurin, major of the third battalion, is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Theophile Laurin of 779 Merrimack street, and Miss Walker, fourth major, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Walker, 153 Winthrop avenue.

The four senior captains who will command a company of the first, second, third and fourth battalions, respectively, are Marion Leadbetter, Verda Lynch, Madeline Fielding and Gertrude Sweeney. The 12 other captains are: Anna Armstrong, Dorothy Black, Margaret Doherty, Mary McKay, Mildred Leathers, Margaret Sharkey, Rose Portek, Ida Humphreys, Catherine Washburn, Gertrude Lewis, Grace Burke and Mildred Anderson. Next in rank come the four adjutants, Catherine Hackett, Marie Reynolds, Martha Gallagher and Florence McKewin.

The 16 lieutenants are the following: Eva Turcotte, Hazel Cameron, Ellen Green, Colla Gendreau, Louise Fay, Mary Haggerty, Anna Kennedy, Gertrude Fay, Anastasia McCrossen, Helen King, Helen Cady, Marion Durrell, Alice Murphy, Mildred Jones, Nelda Cross and Elizabeth Carmichael.

Ninety-four girls competed in the drill held before three out-of-town judges in the Paige street annex last Friday afternoon. Their work in this drill counted one-half of their average, the other half being the grade of their yearly work. The two marks were added and an average made by Supt. of Schools Hugh J. Molloy and Herbert D. Blizky, head master of the school.

Would Put Senate on Record As Against Ratification of Treaty in Present Form

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The treaty fight broke out anew in the senate today along lines which promised speedily to head up the issues involved over the League of Nations.

Immediately at the opening of the session Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, republican, of the foreign relations committee, and a former secretary of state, presented a resolution of far-reaching proposals. It proposes to have the senate give official notice to President Wilson and the American peace mission at Paris that ratification of the treaty is opposed in its present form, which has the league covenant interwoven with the terms of settlement.

It proposes that the peace treaty shall be so drawn that the question of a League of Nations shall be reserved for consideration by the people of any nation without affecting Germany's obligations in the actual settlement of peace terms.

It proposes to have the senate declare its policy of the United States government that should the peace and freedom of Europe again be threatened by any power or combination of powers, the United States will regard such a situation as a menace to itself and would pledge the United States, if necessary to go to "the defense of civilization" again.

The Knox resolution was referred without debate to the foreign relations committee and the storm for the day appeared to have passed over.

A fresh outbreak was threatened, however, when Senator Pitman, democrat, of Nevada, began reading a speech in favor of the League of Nations by former President Taft, which previously had been denied unanimously consent for insertion in the Record on objection of Senator Smoot, republican, of Utah.

Declares Mrs. Skeels Tried to Kill Herself When Arrested

LAWRENCE, June 10.—The jury selected yesterday, to try Mrs. Bessie M. (Skeels) Lundgren, a nurse, for the alleged murder of her patient, Miss Florence W. Gay, today visited the former residence of Miss Gay in Andover. The defendant had passed the night at her own home in Andover, as she is out on bail because of her weakened condition from recent illness.

Withstands Strain of First Day

Counsel said Mrs. Lundgren had withstood the strain of the opening day of trial well. After the view of the Gay home by the jury, it was expected that the defendant would hear from Attorney General I. C. Atwill in the opening address for the prosecution, a recital of the acts charged against her and of the evidence which the government will offer.

It is the contention of the prosecution that while caring for Miss Gay in December, 1917, the nurse gave her poison and stole several articles of value from the Gay home. It was announced that the defendant would be known throughout the trial as "Mrs. Skeels." No judicial notice being taken of her marriage three months ago to A. J. Lundgren of Andover, at a Brookline hospital.

Attempted Suicide

The statement that Mrs. Skeels had attempted to commit suicide when she was arrested was made by District Attorney Wells in the opening address for the prosecution. The nurse, he said, was found by officers with her mouth over the opened outlet of the gas jet.

The government would show by witnesses, the prosecutor told the jury, that Nurse Skeels was "the only person with the opportunity, capacity and training and with the peculiar skill to administer arsenic to Miss Gay." After mentioning the fact that experts reported the finding of arsenic in the body when it was exhumed, District Attorney Wells stated witnesses would show that there was no arsenic in the medicine administered to Miss Gay nor was arsenic used in the embalming fluid. Dr. Charles B. Abbott of Andover, the physician who certified that Miss Gay died of cerebral hemorrhage, would testify to his reasons for this conclusion.

The district attorney told of Mrs. Skeels' employment as nurse for Mrs. Rosamond Gay, mother of Miss Gay, and recited the several stages of Miss Gay's illness while the nurse was in attendance at the Gay home. Miss Edith Luce, a relative of the dead woman, he said, would testify that at one time Miss Gay complained of the strength of the tea which she was being given and that about the same time she collapsed in the house.

Necess for luncheon was taken before the prosecution called its first witnesses. Mrs. Skeels had waived her right to accompany the jury on its visit to the Gay home, remaining in the courthouse until the jurors returned.

VILLA GANG CAPTURED ANOTHER TOWN

EL PASO, Tex., June 10.—Villa forces occupied Guadalupe, a Mexican town opposite Fabens, Tex., 32 miles east of El Paso, last night, according to information from Fabens today. Another force, said to be part of General Angeles' forces, is moving towards Juarez. There was no fighting at Guadalupe, the Carranza garrison having been called in to Juarez last week.

FEVERISH RISE IN COTTON

NEW YORK, June 10.—A feverish rise in cotton continued today. When the market opened, excited traders bid that commodity up to 31.30 cents a pound, which is a gain of 371 points, or $18.35 a bale over the low level of Saturday morning. Rumors of a short crop and a great export demand persisted, and to these the speculative skylining is attributed.

TRADES UNIONS MUST OPPOSE RED METHODS

TORONTO, Ont., June 10.—If Canada is to retain confidence in organized labor, the trades unions must denounce any of their members who hold or preach "sedition" doctrines, repugnant to the common sense of the people," W. J. Bulman, president of the Canadian Manufacturers' association declared today at the opening of the annual convention.

MUSCATELLI PULLED GUN ON WARNOCK

John Muscatelli, aged 31 years and residing in Marshall street, was arrested this forenoon in West Adams street by Patrolman Lapan, after he had pulled a revolver on Robert Warnock, a foreman at the new building of the National Biscuit Co. Officer Lapan, who is on his vacation and was at his home, heard shouts in the street, and rushing out saw Muscatelli running away with a large knife in one hand and a revolver in the other. He gave chase, caught the man and sent him to the station, where he was booked for carrying a concealed weapon. It was learned that Muscatelli called on Warnock and claimed a half day's pay and that an argument followed, in the course of which, it is claimed Muscatelli displayed a 32-calibre revolver containing six cartridges and pulled the trigger, but the cartridge failed to explode.

STRIKE OF TELEGRAPHERS SET FOR TOMORROW

CHICAGO, June 10.—Only 11th hour concessions by operating companies can prevent the strike tomorrow of some 70,000 telegraph and telephone operators, S. J. Koenekamp, international president of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America, said today, after receipt of additional reports from locals in various sections of the country.

NO TELEGRAPHIC STRIKE HERE

"There is no telegraph strike likely in Lowell," was the statement of R. E. Follansbee, manager of the local office of the Western Union Telegraph Co. to The Sun today. Mr. Follansbee said that the commercial telegraphers who have voted to go on strike throughout the country tomorrow have not a very strong following in the east, and that as far as the local office is concerned he can see no reason for concern by Lowell users of the telegraph service. As far as the service is concerned there is no strike, Mr. Follansbee declared, as no bulletins have been received from the officials higher up regarding interruptions of service, as is customary when there is some hitch due to unusual conditions. "So far as I know there will be no interruption of the Lowell service," added the manager. "We are still receiving telegrams for all parts reached by the Western Union. Our controlling offices have not notified us of any interruption of service and everything is running along smoothly. The only information I have of any strike is what I have read in the papers."

GOVERNMENT SELLS BIG SUPPLY OF LEATHER

PHILADELPHIA, June 10.—More than $2,000,000 worth of surplus leather purchased for war purposes was sold by the government here yesterday at public auction. The sale will continue until the entire stock valued at approximately $4,000,000 is disposed of. Representatives of leather firms from many sections are attending the sale. The stock includes various grades of strap, harness, sole and bag leather, and rawhide calf skins.

Big Four Meets Amid Atmosphere of Pessimism—Clemenceau Still Firm

PARIS, June 10.—(Havas).—The signing of the peace treaty by Germany before July 1, and its ratification by the various parliaments before August 1, is predicted today by the Echo de Paris. It expects the answer to the German counter proposals to be handed over probably on Friday. The course of the Germans, it thinks, will be to replace the Scheideemann government by another, in case the present government determines not to sign the terms as the allies finally present them.

Clemenceau Firm

PARIS, June 10.—The council of four met today amid an atmosphere of considerable pessimism over the larger questions of peace making with Germany still unsettled. It is understood that Premier Clemenceau had not moved from his position against any modification of the peace terms.

No settlement of the Silesian question or that concerning the Polish western frontier has been reached. It is stated that the Silesian problem is tied up with the difficulty of holding a plebiscite without allied occupation.

LEATHER WORKERS RETURN TO WORK

It was stated at the Leather Workers' hall in Central street this afternoon that the strike among the employees of the American Hide & Leather Co. in Perry street, which has been going on for the past couple of days, had been settled. No official information concerning the strike, other than that the men would not because of wage difficulties, could be obtained, but it was stated at 2 o'clock this afternoon that the trouble was over and that the men would return to work at once.

HENRI FERRON PAROLED

Lowell Man Who Figured as Principal in Murder, Allowed His Freedom

Henri Ferron of this city, who since 1910 has been confined to the insane department of the state farm at Bridgewater for the murder of Flora Lariviere, which occurred in Hereford place, off Marshall street on the evening of Jan. 25, 1910, was released yesterday afternoon after the charge of murder against him was placed on file by Justice Hugo A. Dubuque at the criminal session of the superior court in East Cambridge. Ferron spent last night in this city and this evening will leave for Massey Station, Ontario, Canada, where he will live with an uncle and aunt.

Although very thin in appearance, Ferron is enjoying the best of health, and says the treatment he received at the institution was most satisfactory. "I have lost at least 15 pounds during my incarceration," he said, "but that was due to confinement for several years."

The mutilated body of Flora Lariviere, a married woman, was found on a mattress in the kitchen of her home at 3 Hereford place, off Marshall street, on the morning of Jan. 25, 1910. A search was immediately started for Henri Ferron, who was known to have lived there, and who had disappeared. A few weeks later word was received in this city that Ferron had been captured at St. Sebastian, Que., and Lowell officers went to Canada and returned with the prisoner. He did not fight extradition.

Ferron was kept under observation for a few days and finally was declared insane by two physicians and sent to the insane department of the state farm at Bridgewater. During his long stay at the farm Ferron was a model prisoner and won the confidence of the attendants and officials to such an extent that after five years he was given considerable freedom. He conducted a clothes cleaning and pressing department and in this manner was able to save enough money to care for his aged mother, up to the time of her death, which occurred in this city, April 15, 1917. During his spare time Ferron also learned the carving business.

About a year ago through the recommendations of his attendants Ferron was placed on parole and given more freedom than ever. He was transferred from the insane department to the farm and assisted in looking after the livestock. Through the efforts of Lawyer A. O. Hamel and Joseph Albert of this city, who became interested in the prisoner, a petition for his release was filed with the proper authorities and several hearings were held. Yesterday afternoon Perron was taken to East Cambridge and appeared before Judge Dubuque at the criminal session of the superior court. By the terms of his parole Perron is to go to Canada and live on a farm with relatives, an uncle and aunt. Dr. Frank H. Carlisle, medical director of the hospital, gave a written statement to the effect that Perron had shown no traces of insanity and was perfectly safe to be at large. Perron is 32 years old.

First Aid in the Mills

date preventative of infection and disease. It is a positive check on the safe-guarding conditions and appliances now so universally in vogue and will steadily tend toward a more healthful working atmosphere and laboring conditions.

The first system of first aid work in Lowell was installed at the U. S. Cartridge Co. during its wartime activities. Prior to that first aid kits were to be found practically everywhere, but through ignorance their use was restricted and only in remote cases were the kits opened. At the Cartridge Co. nine nurses were employed and for more than two years they treated on an average of 400 to 500 cases a day. Most of the cases were minor cuts and bruises, but there is no telling how many would have developed into infection and poisoning had not immediate care been given.

Perhaps the most comprehensive and complete mill first aid hospital in the city is connected with the Ray State Cotton Corp. This company has had a registered, graduate nurse in its employ for several months. A hospital building just across the street from the mill is equipped most thoroughly with every modern appliance. Mrs. Thelma Caldecott is the nurse in charge and her work not only includes first aid but also milk sanitation and the general health condition of the employees. In her hospital it is possible at a second's notice to prepare for the dressing of a slight scratch or for a most serious operation. The receiving and operating rooms are immaculate in appearance and complete in equipment. Medicine and instrument cabinets line the walls and her many appliances even include a baker for the treatment of rheumatism and neuritis. She averages about six cases a day in actual first aid work, but her health hints to employees and enforcement of sanitation regulations take up every minute of her time. In practically all of the local mills graduate or registered nurses are in charge of the work. In one or two instances young women without sufficient nursing experience have been engaged, but the industrial nurses, meeting in Boston a few days ago, protested against this, and it is believed that only graduate and registered nurses will hereafter be employed. The nurses believe the work too serious and taxing for an inexperienced worker and believe the full intent of the law cannot be carried out unless a woman of wide comprehensive hensibility and extensive training is in charge.

At the Massachusetts Co. Miss Ann Taylor, nurse, has been in charge only for a few weeks, but already her results are easily apparent and considerable development is planned. Miss Carr is doing splendid work at the Merrimack and the Appleton Co. after careful study is installing a splendid hospital equipment under the supervision of Mrs. Sarah Wood, registered nurse.

Threat to Use Force (By The Associated Press) While the peace conference heads are devoting as much of their time as feasible to the framing of the reply to the German counter-proposals, this work has not yet reached such a state as to make possible the naming of a definite date for the presentation of the document to the German plenipotentiaries.

Considerable interference

There has been considerable interference with the deliberations of the council of four over this question of primary interest. On Monday, for instance, the council was compelled to devote much of its session to consideration of the situation in Czechoslovakia, where the advance of the Hungarian soviet troops has brought about what is admittedly a serious situation. An ultimatum has been sent to the Hungarian government, it is reported, demanding that the advance into Czechoslovakia be stopped and threatening to use allied troops to force Hungary to abandon her invasion of her neighbors' territory.

The main question which the council now is considering in connection with the German treaty is the proposed change in the covenant of the League of Nations whereby the terms of Germany's admission would be made easier. The proposed changes are said to be prompted mainly by a desire to forestall the possible formation of another combination of nations, with Russia, Germany and the former Germanic allies taking the leading roles. It is felt in some quarters, according to advices, that it would be easier to deal with Germany as a member of the league than if she remained outside.

Turkish Delegation

The Turkish delegation en route to France on board a French warship is to appear before the peace conference merely in an advisory capacity, and its members will not be considered as plenipotentiaries. There has as yet been no definite statement whether a treaty with Turkey will be negotiated.

Important Political Event

An important political event in Germany, set for today, is the national con-

at Weimar. The meeting of this party, its first since it took control of the government is expected to have a considerable bearing on the government's future course, not only as regards Germany's foreign relations but her internal affairs.

NEW PLAN FOR REPARATIONS

PARIS, June 10—The plan for reparations which is now proposed in the Council of Four, according to Marcel Hutin, of the Echo de Paris, consists first, in seizing German liquid assets to the value of 25,000,000,000 francs; second, to leave a margin of two years so that an accurate idea of the economic and financial situation in Germany may be gained; third, after two years to exact payment on account of 125,000,000,000 francs in gold on negotiable securities; and, fourth, to give the reparations committee authority to raise the amount of the annual payments by Germany, should her capacity to pay increase.

DOMESTIC POLITICS

London Comment on Senate
Vote on Ireland—Carson
Man Beaten

LONDON, June 10.—The London newspapers, as a whole, are not excited over the resolution adopted by the United States senate asking the American peace delegates to secure a hearing before the peace conference for Ireland's delegates. Owing to the difference in time between America and England and the fact that few papers publish on Sunday, yesterday was the first opportunity the daily newspapers had for comment.

The Daily Chronicle expresses surprise that Americans "are so extraordinarily misinformed on the Irish question." It adds:

"Truths which are commonplace here

are entirely overlooked or unknown in America, where it is not realized that the home rule question is not an issue between England and Ireland but between Irishmen and Irishmen."

"Deliberate Assault on Friends"

The Morning Post comments in stronger terms and ascribes the action of the senate to hostility to the League of Nations, British support of which, it says, has stirred up intense animosity against Great Britain. It repudiates the idea that Great Britain wishes to interfere with the Monroe Doctrine and complains of "blame" cast on Great Britain for what President Wilson has done.

The paper declares that British interests and British sovereignty have been sacrificed in an apparently futile effort to please him. The Post continues:

"There is no country in the world but America where such a deliberate affront to a friendly power would be offered. Judged by all standards of international comity and decorum, it is indefensible."

"Purely Domestic Politics"

"We do not mind it, for it is purely domestic politics," says the Sunday Express, in commenting on the resolution passed by the United States senate asking the American peace delegates in Paris to secure a hearing for Ireland's delegates before the peace conference.

"It affects the Anglo-American relations," continues the newspaper, "no more than if the house of lords were to recommend the peace conference receive a delegation from the Philippines to hear reasons why their aspirations for freedom from American control should not be realized, or a delegation from Porto Rico with a similar mission."

"But, as Kipling says, that is another story, and the house of lords does not depend for its existence on votes and there is no organized propaganda in this country to 'free' Western Islanders, who are doing as well under the Americans as the Irish under the British."

Carsonite Loses

LONDON, June 10.—In the parliamentary election held yesterday for the vacant seat in East Antrim, Ireland, a defeat for the regular Unionist faction, headed by Sir Edward Carson, resulted.

The victor was Mr. Hanna, independent unionist, who polled 3714 votes as against 7549 for Mr. Moore, unionist, and 1778 for Mr. Legg, liberal.

In the last parliamentary election for the eastern division of Antrim, Brigadier-General R. C. A. McCalmont, unionist, polled 15,296 votes as compared with 861 votes for D. Dunigan, the Sinn Féin candidate. General McCalmont and Mr. Dunigan were the only candidates.

Wilson Gets Senate Resolve

PARIS, June 10.—Secretary Lansing has received cabled copies of the United States senate resolutions asking for the text of the German treaty and requesting a hearing before the peace conference for Edward de Valera and other Irish delegates.

Secretary Lansing has referred the resolutions to President Wilson, who has not yet announced his decision.

U. S. BUSINESS MEN TO VISIT JAPAN

TOKIO, May 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—At a banquet given here last night by Wallace M. Alexander and Robert Newton Lynch of the San Francisco chamber of commerce, between 16 and 20 business men of the United States were pledged to visit Japan during next April with a view to meeting and taking up with their Japanese colleagues the various commercial problems affecting both countries.

The banquet was attended by many Japanese high in the nation's various activities. Co-operation in the effort to solve the mutual problems confronting the two races, was pledged by the speakers.

AMERICAN ACADEMY OF MEDICINE CONVENTION

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 10.—Dr. T. A. Williams of Washington, D. C., told the American Academy of Medicine in annual convention here today that industrial leaders, presidents of universities and other educators, were obtuse to the preventable losses by functional nervous diseases. The war, he said, has demonstrated the rapid curability of these cases where properly dealt with.

"It all depends," Dr. Williams said, "upon placing the patient under proper conditions, differentiating the various psychological conditions, and devising and organizing ways of dealing with each kind. Industrial leaders already have realized the importance of physical hygiene in all these fields. They must now realize that psychological hygiene is also in need of skilled management. Not only will efficiency be increased, but content also."

ALLIED SEAPLANES DROP BOMBS ON RED CRAFT

KEM, Northern Russia, Monday, June 9.—Allied seaplanes attacked four Bolshevik craft on Lake Onega, south of here, yesterday. The bombs dropped by the seaplanes did not hit the Bolshevik boats, but the machine guns carried by the aircraft raked the decks of the lake boats and silenced the anti-aircraft guns which were mounted there. The Bolshevik flotilla fled and was pursued for a great distance. One allied plane returned to its base, reloaded bombs and rejoined the others in the pursuit. After the engagement, all the allied machines returned.

Just what to do to keep her family rugged and well. She believed in nature's remedy, the life-giving juices of leaves, roots and herbs, which are united in SEVEN BARKS and which has been a standard and favorite remedy for indigestion, constipation, kidney, liver and stomach troubles for nearly 50 years.

You cannot be constipated and happy at the same time. If you have a bad taste in the mouth, foul breath, furrowed tongue, dull headaches, drowsiness, disturbed sleep, mental depression, yellowish skin, then you are constipated, and SEVEN BARKS will quickly relieve this disorder, which is the result of liver derangement, and severe digestive disturbances.

Be prepared for these emergencies; always keep SEVEN BARKS on hand, and take from 10 to 20 drops in a little water after meals, and it will quickly cause the bowels and liver to act normally.

If you want to get the greatest efficiency out of your body, you should take SEVEN BARKS, so that the stomach may do its best work, and not be handicapped by the burdens we foolishly sometimes put upon it. For sale by druggists. Price, 50 cents per bottle.—Adv.

PROPOSALS FOR MOREY SCHOOL ADDITION

Separate sealed proposals will be received from local contractors only, at the office of the Commissioner of Public Property and Licenses at City Hall, on Monday, June 16, 1919, at 12 m. o'clock for the construction of an addition to the C. W. Morey School of Fine and Wilder streets, in accordance with plans and specifications furnished by Henry L. Bourke, Architect.

The work will be let in eight ($8) separate contracts as follows:

- 1.—General Contract Work.
- 2.—Carpenter Work.
- 3.—Plumbing.
- 4.—Heating and Ventilating.
- 5.—Painting.
- 6.—Electrical Work.
- 7.—Painting.
- 8.—Sheet Metal Work.

Proposals must be made on the blank forms provided with the specifications and no bid will be accepted if presented in any other form.

Each proposal must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check for 5 per cent. of the price mentioned in the proposal. Said check to be made payable to the city treasurer of the city of Lowell, and to be forfeited to the city should the successful bidder refuse or fail to sign the contract within ten days after being notified that said contract is ready for signature.

Each contractor must be prepared to give bond to the amount of 25 per cent. of the contract price conditioned on the satisfactory execution of the contract as required by plans and specifications.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the building department and at the office of the architect.

The Commissioner of Public Property and Licenses reserves the right to reject any or all proposals, or to accept the proposal which seems for the best interests of the City of Lowell.

GEORGE E. MARCHAND,
Commissioner of Public Property and Licenses.

It was understood that the committee would continue its hearings here all week and then proceed to Washington to draw up official recommendations.

CARDINAL TO SPEAK AT BIG IRISH MEETING

BOSTON, June 10.—Utterances of memorable importance are expected at the meeting tonight in Mechanics building under the direction of the Irish Freedom Fund association, as Cardinal O'Connell last evening informed the advisory committee of the association that he will positively speak at the meeting.

It is expected that the meeting will be one of the greatest gatherings of men of Irish blood and persons in sympathy with the cause of Irish freedom ever held in this city. Col. Edward L. Logan will preside. His address, though brief, will be a strong statement of views with regard to the claims of Ireland to be free. Colonel Logan will be introduced by John Morton of Dorchester, temporary chairman.

Michael J. Ryan of Philadelphia, ex-Pennsylvania public service commissioner and one of the three Irish-Americans who sought an audience of the peace conference to present the cause of the Irish nation, will be the principal speaker. He will present an informal report of events in Paris, London and in Ireland as they relate to the Irish claims for freedom.

Justice Daniel F. Cohalan of the New York supreme court, who presided at the great convention in Philadelphia that voted to raise $1,500,000 for a fund to counteract the British propaganda that, it is alleged, is seeking to prejudice the Irish cause in the opinion of the American public, will review the claims of Ireland to nationhood.

The advisory committee of the Irish Freedom Fund association held a long session yesterday afternoon and evening at the City club, concluding its arrangements for the meeting. Plans were made for an overflow meeting in the vicinity of the hall, should conditions require.

There will be no tickets of admission other than a few issued to officers of Irish societies and affiliated organizations. The platform will be reserved for guests, including mayors of cities of Greater Boston, members of congress and the clergy, of whom scores will be present.

From 7.30 to 8 there will be a band concert, and just before the speaking the entire audience will sing the Star Spangled Banner.

The committee which has arranged the meeting is John Morton, chairman; John H. H. McNamee, ex-mayor of Cambridge, who is treasurer of the fund; Daniel Foley, secretary; Mayor Edward F. Quinn of Cambridge; Edward F. McSweney, ex-chairman of the port directors; Attorney Daniel T. O'Connell and Jas. O'Sullivan of Lowell.

MOUNT VERNON ARRIVES WITH 6000 TROOPS

NEW YORK, June 10.—Bringing 5354 troops, including headquarters of the Sixth division, the transport Mount Vernon arrived today from Brest. Major General Walter H. Gordon, commanding the Sixth division, and Brig. Gen. Lucius L. Durfee of the 12th infantry brigade, were the ranking officers aboard.

The Mount Vernon brought three complete units; the 54th infantry, the 11th field artillery, and the Sixth field battalion signal corps.

Of the Sixth division headquarters troops, 55 officers and 211 men were

"There's a Reason"

GREAT SUPER-CIRCUS BIGGEST IN WORLD

The Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Shows combined form a perfect city—the biggest "metropolis" of white-tops that has ever toured America. It visits a different locality almost every day and, before the present tour is ended, will have been built and torn down again more than 200 times and travelled upward of 50,000 miles. Yet it moves without fuss or noise—the marvel of all who visit it.

When this great, new institution is annexed to this city it will add to the local population hundreds upon hundreds of strange people from all countries. The "canvass town" will cover acres of ground and, in addition to its people, will comprise regiments of horses made up of the finest equines from the two big circuses that are now consolidated in one; most of the elephants in America, and a wonderful menagerie composed of such innovations as a herd of eight giraffes. of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey combined differs in both character and immensity from any ever transported before.

Many trains are required to handle this mammoth institution. The main tent is easily the largest ever constructed. It has been built to accommodate such arctic innovations as an elephant act which numbers a "quarter of a million pounds of actors." Nothing like this presentation has ever before been attempted in the annals of amusement. At the finish of this wonderful act the great array of ponderous actors completely fill one entire side of the great hippodrome track.

A remarkable pageant opens the main tent program, in which a myriad of actors participate. Gorgeous costumes, many wondrous carved vehicles, scores of beautiful horses and an endless array of characters made famous in song and story are introduced.

Knights, jesters, dancers and ladies fair march by. Different sections of the magnificent pageant tell the story of well remembered tales.

The arctic numbers embrace the cream of the world's greatest circus stars. There are many riders headed by such equestrians as the famous May Wirth, the Davenport, the Mannfords and the McPherson clan of Scottish horsemen. There are high wire artists without equal led by Bird Mifflin, "queen of the air." There are aerialists who number such names as Ernest Clark, the Seigrist-Silton troupe and the world famous Klarkons. And there are a lot of the many. Of course there are clowns—scores of the funniest; a vast array of dumb actors including five troupes of trained seals, statue acts and no end of clever dogs, ponies and wonderful pigs, monkeys and birds. Exhibitions are to be given here, Monday, June 16.

METHODIST CENTENARY

Money Still Pouring In For Centenary Fund, Which Is Oversubscribed

BOSTON, June 10.—More than $1,250,000 oversubscription is reported in the Methodist centenary drive for $105,000,000, it was announced by Dr. J. I. Bartholomew, executive secretary of New England area, yesterday at Boston headquarters. With only about half the 20 areas reporting, $106,295,000 has been reported pledged by the Methodist Episcopal church.

The Methodist church south reports its quota of $35,000,000 also oversubscribed, having a total of $55,319,223 raised. In all, American Methodists have raised to date $111,544,232 and subscriptions are still pouring in.

While New England has not yet reached its quota of $5,404,630 the daily records show a steady advance toward the goal. Worcester district reported an advance yesterday of $4,655, making a total of $129,715 raised, or 91 per cent of its quota. Dover, N. H., district reported 97 per cent of its quota of $190,905 in hand. There is about $180,000, on an annual basis, yet to be raised in New England.

Organized teams left the Boston headquarters yesterday for all parts of New England where churches have as yet failed to reach their quotas.

Churches in Greater Boston reported yesterday as having reached their quotas are Trinity church, West Boston, $7580; Glendale, Everett, $12,955; East Boston, $15,720; Daniel Dorchester Memorial, West Roxbury, $19,390. Ipswich is reported as oversubscribed 200 per cent.

INJUNCTION TO FORCE COMPANY TO RUN CARS

DETROIT, Mich., June 10.—Officials of the Detroit United Railways Co., whose motormen and conductors struck Saturday night, completely tying up traction service in this city and suburbs were today served with a mandatory and prohibitory injunction, issued late last night, to compel the company to resume operations of a portion of its system.

The injunction covers what are known as the "three-cent lines" and Mayor James Couzens announced he would seek another court order today to oblige the company to operate other lines now running under a day to day contract with the city.

President Frank W. Brooks of the traction company has issued a statement declaring he is prepared to fight such a move by the city.

A considerable part of the city is served by lines affected by the injunction and if operations are resumed on these, it is pointed out the situation will be greatly relieved.

ON PROTECTIVE TARIFF

Hearings on Proposed Legislation Held by House Ways and Means Committee

WASHINGTON, June 10.—First hearings on proposed protective tariff legislation were held today by the house ways and means committee with representatives of several industries that sprang up during the war, seeking to present their arguments. Among these were those engaged in potash production, the manufacture of laboratory glass and dyes and mining of magnesite on the Pacific coast and manganese in southwestern Virginia.

Chairman Fordney said separate measures for the infant war industries that need protection, will likely be reported favorably by the committee, while hearings on a general revision of the tariff would be begun in about a month.

CONSIDER $750,000,000 RR. APPROPRIATION

WASHINGTON, June 10.—To speed the passage of appropriation measures, the house today laid aside the army bill and considered the $750,000,000 railroad appropriation. Leaders planned to pass and send the bill to the senate before adjournment. Resumption of work on the army bill is set for Wednesday.

Chairman Good, in explaining the reduction of $450,000,000 in the amount requested by the railroad administration for its use in operating the government-controlled lines until the end of the calendar year, said the $750,000,000 might not meet all financial requirements, which he said, were now too indefinite for determining exact future needs.

LOWELL CASES IN CAMBRIDGE COURT

At yesterday afternoon's session of the criminal superior court in East Cambridge Justice Hugo A. Dubuque disposed of Lowell cases as follows:

James Harrison, who was on probation for breaking and entering was surrendered by Probation Officer Jas. P. Ramsay and was sent to the Concord reformatory. He was charged with breaking and entering the Western Union Telegraph company's storehouses at Lowell on October 15, 1918 and stealing 500 pounds of wire.

Albee Rivers, who, earlier in the day was surrendered by Probation Officer Ramsay and sentenced to Sherborn, had her sentence revoked and instead was given eight months in the house of correction at East Cambridge.

Nicholas Karavoulas, who was charged with carnal abuse of a female child, pleaded guilty to simple assault and was given two years in the house of correction. Two other similar cases were filed.

LOWELL VOCATIONAL SCHOOL OUTING

The fourth annual field day and outing of the boys' departments of the Lowell Vocational school will be held at the Genoa club grounds next Friday. The young men will leave Lowell on the 8:50 Tyngsboro car and the morning will be given over to a series of ball games between teams representing the various departments of the school. At one o'clock lunch will be served and in the afternoon a series of track events run off, including a tug of war, relay races, etc. Later the baseball winners of the morning will play off for the supremacy of the school and a banner will be awarded to the winning team. Another banner will be awarded to the department whose members score the greatest number of points in the track events and a cup will be presented to the individual getting the largest number of points. Alumni of the school are cordially invited to be present.

Headaches and Sleeplessness Are Corrected

Vermont Woman Recommends Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as Blood Builder

No person can remain in good health without sleep, yet there are thousands of people who are forced to exist on only a few hours' sleep that is broken and often unrefreshing because of weak nerves, stomach distress and headaches. There is a limit beyond which they cannot go without a complete nervous breakdown and a rapid decline in health. The cause of this condition is generally weak blood and a treatment which will increase the quantity and improve the quality of the blood will usually restore the body so that normal, strengthening sleep is possible.

An excellent example of the value of a tonic in cases of this kind is the experience of Mrs. Edward Mayo, of No. 57 Cedar street, St. Albans, Vt. She says:

"I was all tired out and very nervous. I couldn't sleep well and what sleep I got didn't seem to refresh me. As a result each morning I seemed a little more exhausted than the day before. I also had severe headaches and my stomach was disordered. I decided to give Dr. Williams' Pink Pills a trial and procured a box. In a short time my appetite improved and my nerves gained strength. I continued the treatment until I was able to sleep well. I can strongly recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for they helped me greatly."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, postpaid, on receipt of price. Write for the free booklet on nervous disorders and diet.—Adv.

LABOR PARTY DECLARES AD- HESION TO THE "THIRD IN- TERNATIONAL OF MOSCOW"

CHRISTIANIA, June 10.—An extraordinary national conference of the labor party has declared adhesion to the "third international of Moscow" and passed resolutions to telegraph Nikolai Lenin, the Bolshevik premier of Russia, that the conference insists that the government establish the right of asylum for political refugees.

The resolutions also state that the conference adheres to the declaration of a blockade against countries and governments attacking soviet Russia, and convey the hope that no Norwegian workers will assist trade in north Russia, Finland, the Baltic provinces or other countries which are being used as bases of operations against Russia.

Her case is not considered serious. The automobile is owned by David Ziskind.

How American Women May Keep Faces Young

"The American smart woman ages early, far earlier than the English woman," says Christian Miller, F. C. I., the famous English health expert. She adds that our climate "so exhilarates that you over-exert yourselves and grow old before you know it. That same exhilarating air dries the skin. The skin that lacks moisture grows pale and withered looking and soon forms wrinkles."

"The American complexion" is best treated by applying pure moricized wax, which causes the faded, lifeless outline to flake off in minute particles, a little each day, until the fresh, young skin beneath is wholly in evidence. Every druggist has this wax; one ounce usually is sufficient. Spread on at night like cold cream, washing it off next morning.—Adv.

PRODUCTION, ADVERTISING, PROSPERITY

The United States Department of Labor says: "Let's continue production and insure prosperity."

Well spoken and well advised. But the thing we produce must be advertised. The deaf and dumb man, poor fellow, doesn't get much attention until somebody runs over him. The result of production must be advertised for the reason that prosperity is only attained because the thing produced is skillfully advertised.

Whether you like it or not, Mr. Business Man, the public depends on advertisements as its guide to the thing it may buy. This is a safe hunch and if you refuse to believe it from us, ask the merchant who is changing his small, antiquated cash register for a larger one.

With equitable relations obtaining between the worker and the employer, there will be no question as to the quality and the quantity of production in all lines. And there will be no question of a widely distributed prosperity, if the product reaches its market by means of advertising.

In advertising in Lowell, you have to start at the root of efficient and far-reaching method. You are reaching 90 per cent of the homes of Lowell when you contract for space in

RADICALS INJURE LABOR

If there are any men in this country who think they can advance any reform by the use of the bomb or even by an attempt to intimidate the courts, they are greatly mistaken.

In 1886, the eight-hour day seemed within grasp of the Knights of Labor, the greatest union of its day and the pioneer of the present Federation of Labor. Its officers became alarmed at its amazing growth and temporarily closed its doors to new members.

Newly formed labor parties were gaining new victories and a new era seemed about to dawn when the Haymarket riots and bomb outrages of May 1 occurred.

The years that have since elapsed have not fully cleared away the effects and the counter charges of that outbreak. One of the results was that the eight hour movement, which before seemed on the point of realization, died out. The Knights of Labor lost its grip, dwindled and soon passed out of existence, although it had no part in the Chicago events.

A great wave of reaction followed during which the trust movement developed and private interests got a great hold upon the resources of the country.

It took twenty years for labor to recover from the loss of sympathy and the shock caused by the bombing tragedy at Chicago, although labor was not responsible for what the anarchists did.

Thus the bombs barred progress as they always do. Victory for the workers depends upon the growth of democratic power, not upon a resort to violence.

The bomb was the weapon used against czarism in Russia, but the triumph of the revolution so brought about has placed power in the hands of men even more bloody and unscrupulous than was Czar Nicholas. The old regime is surpassed in terror, atrocity and plunder by the sway of Trotsky and Lenin.

This is a dictatorship of the proletariat, undoubtedly what the bomb plotters in this nation want to bring about; but be they socialists, anarchists or imported Bolsheviks, they will find themselves in a losing game. One other attempt at assassination such as the last would lead to summary action and instead of waiting to bring the culprits when found to court, the nearest lamp-post might be utilized. But no civilized community wants any resort to violence unless nothing else will do.

Violence is the reaction of violence. Suppression of free speech leads to violent methods; but the right of free speech must not be understood to permit treasonable utterances which are the stock in trade of anarchy and Bolshevism.

Labor is always the greatest loser by social violence or by advocating revolutionary doctrines. President Gompers, as head of the American Federation of Labor, has been a great power for good because he has always fought the socialist element in the labor unions. In doing so and in adopting a similar attitude towards the I.W.O. and other dangerous organizations, he will simply guide his followers along the straight and open path to the final success which at present seems to await labor organizations. There is to be a greater spirit of co-operation between them and a better mutual understanding than ever before, and all this will aid alike both labor and capital and will also operate for the benefit of the nation at large.

RECKLESS AUTO DRIVING

It would be well, in our opinion, if the police started a crusade against reckless auto drivers. Such a crusade should not be directed solely against overspeeding, but should deal with the men who, in case of the slightest obstruction, take the wrong side of the street to get ahead, and with that other class of reckless drivers who shoot out from narrow side streets into main thoroughfares without any signal of their approach, as if courting death or collision.

Instances of both kinds are very numerous and are the cause of most of the auto accidents in cities. Some drivers do not seem to have any regard for the rules of the road if their cars are duly insured against accident and if, in addition, the owners are insured against liability.

At 1 o'clock on Sunday, a serious collision was narrowly averted at the corner of Paige and Bridge streets through the alertness of a driver who, having passed from Merrimack square, was rounding the end of an electric car standing on Paige street, when he was met squarely by a powerful car coming briskly into Bridge street, from Paige, on the wrong side of the street. The driver of the big car did not even sound his horn and a collision was inevitable, but for the fact that the other car practically leaped out of the way, crossing the sidewalk in front of Mevris' store to escape the crash.

The man in the big car drove on, as if nothing had happened, and nobody had the tact to take his register number. This is a fair illustration of how a great many accidents are caused by men who think everybody else should clear off the road when they approach.

Complaints have been made of auto drivers dashing into crowds while boarding electric cars, so that the people have to jump for their lives.

It seems that the police should get hold of some of these reckless drivers and have them dealt with as the law provides. Nothing else will teach some of them to exercise due caution on the public highways.

S.A.T.C. PROTEST

While the state legislature means well in offering $100 bonus to the men who served in the war, it has erred in discriminating against the Students' Army Training corps, which responded to the government call quite as readily as did their seniors. So far as the term "student" applied, it was a misnomer for the reason that the only subjects of study given any practical attention were those required in training young men for officers. Had the course continued a year, it might have amounted to something, but terminating after a few months, it simply spoiled the entire year for the young men. Such of them as could not remain at college returned home to find, in many cases, that their former employment was not available. Had the war continued a few months longer, many of these young men might have been on their way overseas. They were in training for service and should be treated in all respects as the young men who were in training at Camp Devens or any of the other camps.

They will regard this action of the legislature, if persisted in, as a flagrant and very unjust piece of discrimination and they will be heard from in due time in reference to it.

The S.A.T.C. was instituted by the government, recognized as an important branch of the service, the members of which were considered volunteers, an honor to which even the drafted men cannot lay claim.

It is not for the Massachusetts legislature to adopt any course calculated to brand this class of volunteers as slackers. The young men are not likely to submit to the imputation without a vigorous protest.

THE FOURTH

If the contemplated plans do not miscarry, we shall have a real old fashioned celebration of the Fourth—now more glorious perhaps than ever, for never before has this nation held such a commanding place among the nations of the earth. The celebration in this case, however, will be to honor our heroes in the recent war and in that light, it will be an outpouring of patriotic fervor and gratitude to God that we have escaped the German peril and that the peace that is about to be concluded will be the first step to that longed for era when nations will become amenable to law and join in bringing about universal peace.

THAT "RACE WAR"

There was no race war on the North common and there will be none. The brawl referred to as such was a clash between the rowdies of different nationalities. Sensible people do not encourage one faction to enter into conflict with another, nor do they approve of it. Every good citizen is hopeful that every man who breaks the law on the North common or anywhere else by promoting factional strife, will be arrested without any discrimination on account of nationality. The disturbing elements on that common must realize that they are in serious business when they start a riot or when they interfere with a police officer in discharge of his duty.

When the Boston Globe asked its readers if they were getting sick of eating strawberry shortcake, the paragrapher ought to have borne the fact in mind that some of its readers haven't even started in on shortcake yet. It takes the salaries Boston newspapermen get to be able to afford strawberries at 40 cents per lb.

The Boston Herald cynically objects to jailers and undertakers putting up posters at their respective places of business bidding returning soldiers "Welcome home." The Herald errs. These posters are a demonstration of patriotism and ought not to be regarded as an invitation even by the cynical Herald man.

The health crusade conducted in the fourth grade of the local grammar schools is valuable even as an experiment. If the laws of health be impressed upon the children of a single grade, it is evident that eventually all the children will have benefited thereby, as all have to pass through that grade.

Dr. Gatsopoulos has won the gratitude of his fellow countrymen by his success in promoting the Epirotic movement and in securing other concessions for Greece. The Greeks, like the Poles, have reason to rejoice in the new glory that has come to their motherland.

Every father knows that a weed is more hardy than a cultivated plant because it has to make its own way without petting, and yet he shields his son from hardship and calls it love.

Civilization isn't entirely faultless when it impels us to spend billions for organized slaughter and can't interest us in a proposition to spend other billions for a national system of real roads.

People think the Jap a wonder because he can get a living from an acre of ground. An American could, also, if he could be satisfied with that sort of living.

The building boom that is now starting in Lowell is the forerunner of good times. That is one reason why everybody should help it along.

The city will do well not to take back any of the former commissioners who have been tried and found wanting.

It would be a good time now to have that school survey in order that the high school commission might get the benefit of its findings.

We are always glad to listen to a knocker if he can suggest something better to take the place of what he is knocking.

Sergeant York deserves well of fame, unless some publisher persuades him to write a book.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

The May 17 number of the Ninth Infantry "Gazette," a newspaper published in Germany by the members of that regiment, has just been received with its customary quota of newsy matters, cuts and cartoons. Especially interesting is the philosophical view one of the writers takes on his prospects of staying in Germany a while longer and he gives the following bits of advice to his comrades: "This part of Germany is the most picturesque portion of Europe. How many people in the good old U.S.A. would spend a small fortune to be permitted to spend the summer on the Rhine! You men who have been over here for the last 15 months or more have had but very little opportunity to enjoy the beauties of nature. The opportunity is now at hand and each and every man should take advantage of it. It means only a couple of months delay in returning to your homes and when you do return you will be able to give the folks an intelligent description of what Germany looks like."

The dogs must have been happy last week during the hot spell for styles do not affect them and there is no one to remark what a fright he is in his new suit or to tell him it is time to put on his straw hat. The peace treaty does not interest him for he knows that there are occasions when he will still fight for his home as he always has. In the world of dogs, might still makes right, just as it does in the world of humans in many respects. He dares to express his approval or disapproval and disregards popularity with courage. He can sniff in the face of his enemies and rub against his friends with sincerity. He does not carry tact to the point of hypocrisy but snarls when his lunch or his peace of mind is threatened, though friendly so long as it is warranted. He needs no money for food and lodging. Nature provides for him. He entertains no doubt as to the contrary. He needs no faith, but simply accepts things as they are. He does not have to be conventional and he can run into the water, splash, come out and shake it off where he pleases and not have to clear up the results. He dies. So do we all. He has lived as much in the life of a dog in his 15 years as we do in our three score years and ten. And yet—who wants to be a long haired dog in hot weather?

SEEN AND HEARD

It is not every woman who would have the courage to take a ride in an airplane.

"I couldn't find the combination to unlock it, so I cut it off," said a man in a Boston court, telling how he compelled his wife to stay at home by cutting off her skirt.

The judge asked the fellow in police court charged with assault and battery if he was guilty, and the poor fellow, looking bewildered, said: "How can I tell, yer honor, till I've heard the evidence?"

Some Spud Planter

An Indianapolis woman had her first experience with a garden last year. She spaded the plot herself and then planted her seeds. Everything came up fairly well in due time except the potatoes, and they didn't come at all. In desperation she went to a friend. To her she told of her failure to grow potatoes. "I bought such nice, smooth ones," she ended her plaint, "and I peeled them as nice as I could."

"Yes," agreed the amateur gardener. "I peeled them as nicely as I could and cut out all the specs just as if I were going to cook them. I did hate to put those great white beauties in the ground, but I did and they didn't come up, and—"

"Great Scott!" ejaculated the friend. And that was all.—Indianapolis News.

Very Clean Show

She is 76, but her powers of observation are as good as they were 40 years ago. She sees things.

Recently she came home from downtown and discovered her daughter preparing to go to the theatre in the evening. No questions were asked until the breakfast hour next morning.

"Did you see a good show last night?" Mrs. 76 asked.

"Splendid."

"What was it? Mon'op?"

"Mon'op? Why, mother, that isn't a show—that's the slogan of the Victory loan committee."

"O, is that so? I thought it was a show. Certainly they have billed it like a circus. Yesterday, when I saw 'Mon'op' on all the billboards, I said to myself, 'Well, it should be a clean show.'"—Indianapolis News.

Elemental

Dear, I dissolved my soul today. For I was sick of sound and sense. I tossed myself in sportive play. Back with the elements.

Then, as you came along the street, I threw myself where you should pass.

It was on me you set your feet; I was that patch of grass.

Then, as I lay and laughed at you, A swan you put your perfumed hair. So I leaped up to bless it, too; I was that sunshine there.

Then came the rain, and oh, my chance! All around your face, I kissed and kissed.

You gave me not one reproving glance; I was that driven mist.

I whipped your ribbons round your waist. Your skirts around your silken knees;

I folded you, as though embraced; I was that tricky breeze.

Tomorrow, I again shall be A plain, steady old human style. But you shall wonder as you see The joyance of my smile!

CLOSE OF LOCAL IRISH FUND CAMPAIGN

The local drive conducted by the United Irish societies to raise $10,000 for the cause of Ireland's freedom came to a successful close last evening when team workers met in Hilberman hall and reported their totals to Treasurer Thomas J. Fitzgerald. A deficit of more than $600 was made up by Humphrey O'Sullivan who had promised sometime previous that he would make up whatever was lacking when the drive should finally close.

Chairman James O'Sullivan presided and a feature of the meeting was the vote to send a letter of thanks to Senators Lodge and Walsh for the stand they took on the Irish question. A vote of thanks was extended to Treasurer Fitzgerald as well as to the team workers, especially the women. The committee will be kept intact for future needs. Appreciation was likewise extended to the clergy, the general public and the press for the support given the drive.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

R. V. KEITH'S THEATRE

Ivan Bankhoff & Co. get away from the stereotyped Russian dancing act in their offering at Keith's this week and in its stead present an up-to-the-minute spectacle of ballet nature, containing in 15 minutes the best things one would get from a performance by a full-fledged company.

"The Dancing Master" is the title of the piece and is the excuse for the little plot there is to the series of dances. Bankhoff is supposed to be a dancing teacher; his pupil is a gorgeous young thing of dark features answering to the name of Miss Phoebe. The act opens with her learning the most elementary steps and in no time progresses to the stage where she is an artist herself. In all her numbers she is under the perfect control of her teacher and no matter how whirlwind her gyrations, they cease in a second at the signal of the dancing master. It is obvious that the young woman has learned her art from Bankhoff himself; her every movement is a reproduction of one of his.

But Miss Phoebe is not the whole act by any means. For a period Bankhoff appears alone and his demonstration of bodily control in the midst of what seems to be a terrific exertion is most remarkable. Trailing in the rear alone can account for it. Leon Douque at the piano gives sympathetic accompaniment and adds much to the neatness of the offering. From opera ballet to opera singing the audience is brought by Sybil Vane, coloratura soprano, of commendable ability. Miss Vane chooses some of the better known opera selections for her repertoire and now and then works in one that is known only to devotees of this form of singing. Excellent diction, simple personality and continual control make her most acceptable to a vaudeville audience.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel-Burne have a domestic comedy offering of snow white and the most interesting situations. Its purity does not detract from its earnestness or brightness but rather accentuates it. The setting is a sleep-broken wall of a cozy cottage. It seems that the wife in the piece has planned to stay at her mother's that evening and in the confusion of this husband had arranged a little party of his own. Something went wrong and friend wife stayed at home. When her husband returned there are all kinds of complications and situations. Eventually things straighten out.

Joe and Arnes Riley are excellent Irish character players. They received a big ovation at yesterday's performance and now and then they stray off the beaten number. Several of their songs are introduced in the course of the offering.

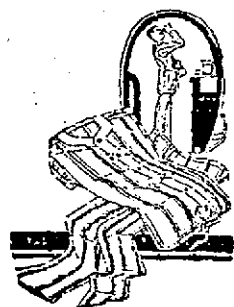

Doc O'Neil, a clever entertainer when he is feeling right, was under the weather yesterday due to a severe cold. However, he did not quit and succeeded in demonstrating many of the new things within him that would be more evident at the week's end. Grace and Eddie Parks in "On the Bridal Path" are capable singers and dancers and Edford's Whirling Sensation closes the bill in great style. The Kingrains have their usual quota of interesting news features. Good seeds for remaining performances may be obtained in advance at the box office, Phone 28.

THE STRAND THEATRE

"Salome" one of William Fox's latest screen productions, a play of real merit in which the famous Theatre Francaise is featured in the title role, is being presented at the headliner of the program at the Strand theatre during the first three days of the week. This wonderful presentation with the other enjoyable numbers is one of the best programs presented at this theatre in a long time.

"Salome" is a very remarkable picture, depicting the bloody stained career of the ruthless princess, the daughter of the high priest, the execution of the queen and the suicide of "Salome," which have removed all but one barrier to Salome's triumph, that barrier being John the Baptist. His offence, however, is the greatest of all, for he scores her down in a great storm, runs into the throne room of Herod, who is deep in wine, greets her with joy. If she will dance for him he will give her "even without of his kingdom." Salome dances the dance of the Seven Veils, at the close of which she falls at the feet of Herod and cries "Give me the head of John the Baptist." This scene is followed by the presentation of the head of John the Baptist on a silver plate in the presence of the king. This is followed by a horrid storm, the turmoil of the terrified banqueters, the other room being destroyed in the roar of the storm. Kill that woman," shouts Herod, feeling with his guests, and the last view of the drama reveals the lifeless body of her who was Salome, princess of Israel.

The play is a wonderful one and it affords Miss Barea an excellent opportunity to demonstrate her talent as a star. The production of this scene has cost more than a million dollars, and over 5000 persons are engaged in the cast. It's a big picture and one to win fame with lovers of good photo-plays. Gladys Leslie is shown in a brilliant, snappy and enjoyable comedy drama, "A Slit in Time," an adaptation from the recent Broadway stage success of the same name. In addition there is also a two-part Vitaphone comedy, which is very pleasing, while the Universal Weekly contains many interesting news events. The musical numbers are very enjoyable.

ducing and altogether one of the most lovable characters that ever flitted across the screen is Mabel Normand, who is visiting the Lowell Opera House this week in the role of "Mick" and that Mabel fits the role was evidenced last evening by the applause given her by a well pleased audience.

Mickey is one of the worst little tumblers imaginable. His parents died when she was a baby, and she has been adopted by her father's partner. The only mother she knows is her guardian, an Indian housekeeper Minnie who worships the very ground that the little tomboy walks on.

After Mickey has grown to be a young woman she meets Herbert Thornhill, a millionaire from the east, who falls deeply in love with her. He decides that Mickey must be educated and writes to Mrs. Drake, Mickey's aunt, telling her that Mickey owns a gold mine and should be looked after. Mrs. Drake invites her niece to Long Island but when she finds that the gold mine is a myth decides that Mickey must pay her way and puts her to work in the kitchen. She gets into one fix after another, but somehow manages to hold the position.

How Mickey and Herbert finally set their feet on the road that leads to home sweet home, makes one of the sweetest stories ever told. And in the end, just as in all good stories, they swear to love, honor and obey for the remainder of their lives.

RAIN MESSED THINGS UP YESTERDAY

Unseasonable weather, cold and threatened rain, caused the postponement of all New England games yesterday. Portland remained in town over the week-end and was scheduled to meet Hayden's team at Spaulding park, but moved on to Lawrence when the weather continued unfavorable. Haverhill, in last place, but fighting mad, comes to Lowell today and will make a valiant attempt to spike the Lowell travelers.

The Call'em

The "batting order shift" which occurred in the Lowell high—Lawrence high baseball game at Spaulding park last week is still with us and is furnishing considerable nutritious food for spiky comment. Both the Lawrence Tribune and Telegram carried squibs pertaining thereto on Saturday, the former printing a letter written in support of himself and team by Coach Walter A. Sidley, of Lowell, and the latter a letter written in support of himself and team by Coach Donahue, of Lawrence. Both letters called attention to the fact that mention was made in The Call'em of a similar shift being made by Boston Latin against Lawrence earlier in the season, while in reality it was the Boston High School of Commerce which committed the error. The Lawrence letter, however, said it was Boston Latin, therefore the usage, but we hasten to rectify the error.

Unintentional Error
Continuing the letter says: "By an unintentional oversight on my part in the eighth inning, Moher batted in the wrong order instead of Ashkenazy. In other words, I wrote that the pitcher as he had been doing from the first inning instead of following Archibald, who started the game as a pitcher, but was shifted to right field. The error was first noticed by Lowell newspaper man who in turn brought it to the attention of Coach Donahue. When Mr. Donahue called Empire Ryman's attention to the wrong order it was then too late for redress, as under the rules the point must be raised before the pitcher following the wrong batter becomes a batsman. As coach of the Lawrence team I met the protest of Coach Donahue to the umpire, the three of us standing together at the plate and stated that my error was unintentional."

No Conference
We have no reason to doubt the sincerity of Sidley's letter in substance, but we do seriously take issue with him when he says that the error was made at the home plate between Coach Donahue, the umpire and himself. As we recall it, Sidley never left the bench for Coach Donahue, but sat at the elbow at one corner of the press box and called over to the Lawrence dugout. "All right Sidley, we will let you get away with it and beat you any way you want to play the game." Moreover, it was the attitude of all the Lawrence people regarding the play that rankled at the attitude of "sorry you broke your neck; ha, ha!"

Amateur Or Professional?
Under the pertinent caption of "Lowell at Haverhill," The Call'em, June 7, the Lawrence Telegram calls The Call'em to account for saying that there were four Lawrence newspaper men at the game and that they were "not" amateur. It is a little hard to see how a high school correspondent for a newspaper man, and you are sure you are making a wallop at some of your own brothers? They admitted the accusation when we hurled it at 'em.

Tough Luck, Rule
Somehow or other Rubie Marquard has never seemed to continue very long sessions of popularity or success. He is a jinx magnet. Yesterday's accident when the eccentric southpaw broke his leg, just about pulls down the shades for the remainder of this season. At least that is the opinion especially during the Giants' prolonged winning streak of a few years back. Rubie has slipped back to mediocre calibre and then suddenly slipped up again. With all the ear marks of a star his road in the big leagues has been stony.

SULLIVAN LEADER OF LOWELL TEAM

Although his average of .391 is 53 points lower than last week, Sullivan still continues to blaze the way in the Hayden's hits. This mark includes the game of Saturday, June 7. The averages follow:

	ab	r	h	ave.
Sullivan	23	9	9	.391
Eckstein	26	8	8	.308
Hayden	25	16	8	.288
Devon	11	3	3	.273
Penfold	11	3	3	.273
Baker	22	6	6	.273

Grinch	55	13	13	.236
Clark	41	9	9	.220
Gaudette	10	2	2	.200
Devitt	2	0	0	.000

Lynch and Devon are tied with 11 each for run getting honors, but Eckstein, who has played in only five games, has crossed the plate seven times and bids fair to take the lead before long. The averages show gains and losses as follows: Sullivan, 53 points gained; Hayden, 19 points gained; Devon, 36 points lost; Penfold, 22 points gained; Cline, 35 points lost; Baker, 11 points gained; Wheeler, 27 points lost; Clark, 13 points gained; Gaudette, 43 points lost.

LOWELL MEN AT TOURNAMENT

Many Lowell golfers were included in the large gallery which watched the first rounds of the National Open at Brae Burn yesterday and tomorrow. They were divided in interest between Mike Brady, Outmet and Chick Evans, although they were most enthusiastic about the playing of Charlie Hoffman, the 22-year-old Philadelphia professional, whose score of 72 tied the course record. The fairways and greens were easy, having a tendency to slow up the long hitters as the balls had little "any roll." J. B. Fyfe, playing from the senior country club, went through the qualifying round and scored a 61. He was the only local man to compete in the hundred and twenty-five players turned in cards.

BRAVES DROP ANOTHER TO THE CUBS

Boston dropped another game to the Cubs yesterday, the score being 3 to 2 in 11 innings. Scott and Maranville were responsible for the setback. In the 11th inning Maranville fumbled Mann's grounder and Merkle followed with a single. Paskert laid down a bunt which Scott picked up and threw wild to first allowing Mann to score the winning run.

Rube Marquard broke a leg when he stumbled over second base in the Brooklyn-Cincinnati game, won by the latter team, 7 to 3. Marquard fell after making a two-base hit and had to be carried from the field. He will probably be out of the game for the rest of the year. Yesterday's victory gave the Reds a clean sweep of the series. St. Louis made it four straight from Philadelphia when they took the last game of the series, 6 to 1. A one-handed punch by Eickholt, which robbed Baird of a home run, was a feature of the game. Dock was hit hard but received sensational support.

The Crystals won their fourth straight game Saturday when the Elmieres were defeated in an overtime game, 14 to 12. Any 14 or 16-year-old team will be welcomed.

ABOUT THE BOXERS

Joe Egan, who claims the bantamweight championship of the navy, got a decision, 10 to 9, over a contender, Lowell in ten rounds last night before the Armory A.A. Portsmouth, N. H. Creek, a boxer of Boston and Art Williams of New Bedford went 10 rounds to a draw.

Jess Willard tried to get E. P. Egan, national amateur heavyweight champ, for one of his sparring partners, but the boxer sailed for France last week to compete in the inter-allied boxing tournament.

Charlie Parker and Young Kloby met in Boston next Monday night in the feature bout. Both handed K.O.'s to Phineas Boyle lately and much interest is being aroused in the mill.

Ferry Greb and Mike O'Dowd are likely to meet at Bridgeport, Conn., on July 4.

Just to show the public that their training starts at an afternoon tea, Willard and Dempsey left sparring partners open up old scars and mugs 'em up a bit.

A new step in local boxing matches is promised in Lawrence next Saturday afternoon when Benny Valzer and Frankie Britt meet to box 15 rounds at O'Sullivan park. Outdoor matches are scarce hereabouts, but this sterling event is about a whale of a crowd if the weather is right.

TENNIS TEAM

U. S. To Be Represented at Inter-Allied Games

The United States will have a tennis team in the matches to be played by representatives of the allied nations from June 22 to July 8 at Paris. Clarence J. Griffin and Willis E. Davis of San Francisco and Charles S. Garland of Pasadena will represent the U.S. with a party of athletes who are going overseas to try for places on the various teams.

The games were arranged at the invitation of General Pershing, who asked the allied nations to send representatives of their armies to which for this competition, which will include all branches of sport. Places on the teams are open only to men who have been in the army, although in the case of the United States it is not necessary that men shall have been overseas.

Griffin and Davis were on the 1916 ranking list in sixth and eighth places, respectively. They were in France last year so they took part in no tournaments in this country. Garland is a former junior champion and captain of the Yale tennis team. Captain Watson M. Washburn and Larry Lester, who are in France and with Harold Breck, a Californian, have been playing in the inter-allied games just completed.

According to the plans as outlined here, the six players named and any others qualified as possible representatives of the United States will try for places on a team of three men. The team thus chosen will meet the teams of the other countries. From the outcome of matches already made in which Australian, French and British players took part, it is plain that the team from the United States will face the stiffest kind of opposition. Although the plans contemplate returning the American players to the United States as soon as their matches are finished, so that they will be in this country for the more important events on the tennis schedule late in summer.

JOHN HYSLOP DEAD

Was Authority on Yachts and Measurement Rules

NEW YORK, June 10.—John Hyslop, retired American yachtsman, who in 1837 measured the Volunteer and Thistle for their race for America's cup and who officiated in five of these international contests, died yesterday at the age of 85. Mr. Hyslop was an authority on yachts and framed the measurement rules which governed yacht racing for many years.

APATHETIC ATHLETICS TAKE A GAME

The lowly Athletics defeated Cleveland yesterday, 3 to 2, in the only American league game played, all others being called off because of cold weather or rain. Seibold outpitched Enzmann. Philadelphia earned all its runs, well placed bunts contributing to the scoring. Bobby Keith continued his hitting spree and got a single and a triple.

CUT OVER DEMPSEY'S EYE

Forces Challenger To Lay Off Boxing For Few Days—Willard Enjoys Road Work

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 10.—Because of danger of infection, Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, challenger for the world's heavyweight championship, today decided not to allow Dempsey to do any more boxing until the wound over his eye inflicted in a training bout yesterday is thoroughly healed. Physicians took two stitches in the wound which is just at the edge of the eyebrow. The skin was split in a contest a year ago and was reopened yesterday when Dempsey was sparring with a left hook. Dempsey will continue his road work and other exercises until the wound is healed.

Willard said today that his training had never been so easy for him as it has been for his coming championship contest.

"Road work used to be punishment of the worst sort for me," he said. "My feet always seemed as heavy as lead and I used to confine myself to three miles of it. Now, however, it is really a pleasure. I went for a run of six miles yesterday and felt fresh and strong at the finish."

"I honestly believe that I could get in condition within 10 days, if necessary, to defend my title."

GOOD CARD FOR C.A.A.

Moran and Mollins in Main Bout—Woods and Strona in Semi-Final

An exceptionally strong card of 36 rounds of boxing was arranged for Thursday night by the Crescent A. A. The men signed up are all noted for their aggressiveness and ability to perform at top speed from soups to soups. The main bout is attracting considerable interest, for two Lowell boys, Frank Mollins and Johnny Moran, are the principals. Mollins has been going along at a fast clip, his last victory over Jack Mansfield of Lawrence stamping him as a high class manipulator of the mitts. He has a great kick and put his opponent away in the K.O. route. Mollins retained his ring experience while a member of the United States navy. He won the lightweight championship of his fleet and has the reputation of never having been knocked down. Both are in good condition for their trained for last on account of the heat. Billy Walsh of Manchester, always a satisfactory performer, and Young Strona of New Bedford, a fast working boy, will meet in a 10-round number. Chick Walsh of the whirlwind from New Bedford, and Young Drew of Lawrence, who recently defeated Young Walsh of Lowell, will meet in an eight-round bout, and Young Criley of Lawrence and Joe Solberg of New Bedford, two of the best preliminary boys in this section, will clash in the opening event.

COMMANDER ARRESTED AS GERMAN SPY

CAMP DEVENS, June 10.—It took Capt. John Ruckman of the 95th Division Headquarters, son of Brig-Gen. John Ruckman, to tell some New Englanders something about their own boys that they hadn't heard before. As one of the most interesting escapades in which American doughboys participated, Capt. Ruckman told how the 301st Trench Mortar Battery of the old 75th Division, went right through the first line trenches of the 90th Division and established themselves in the village of Feyenohe, within 200 yards of the Germans. The commander of the battery was arrested by 30th Division soldiers and brought back as a German spy master.

U. S. To Be Represented at Inter-Allied Games

The United States will have a tennis team in the matches to be played by representatives of the allied nations from June 22 to July 8 at Paris. Clarence J. Griffin and Willis E. Davis of San Francisco and Charles S. Garland of Pasadena will represent the U.S. with a party of athletes who are going overseas to try for places on the various teams.

The games were arranged at the invitation of General Pershing, who asked the allied nations to send representatives of their armies to which for this competition, which will include all branches of sport. Places on the teams are open only to men who have been in the army, although in the case of the United States it is not necessary that men shall have been overseas.

Griffin and Davis were on the 1916 ranking list in sixth and eighth places, respectively. They were in France last year so they took part in no tournaments in this country. Garland is a former junior champion and captain of the Yale tennis team. Captain Watson M. Washburn and Larry Lester, who are in France and with Harold Breck, a Californian, have been playing in the inter-allied games just completed.

According to the plans as outlined here, the six players named and any others qualified as possible representatives of the United States will try for places on a team of three men. The team thus chosen will meet the teams of the other countries. From the outcome of matches already made in which Australian, French and British players took part, it is plain that the team from the United States will face the stiffest kind of opposition. Although the plans contemplate returning the American players to the United States as soon as their matches are finished, so that they will be in this country for the more important events on the tennis schedule late in summer.

ARMY-NAVY FIELD DAY ON SUNDAY

Extensive plans are being made for the Army-Navy field day to be held at Braves field, Boston, next Sunday afternoon. Hundreds of athletes from Camp Devens, First Naval district, army headquarters and other nearby posts and camps will compete. There will be a baseball game between two selected teams, Army against Navy. Admiral Diano and Commandant Bush will be present and state officials have been invited. The boxes will be reserved for officers and invited guests, but the remainder of the large seating capacity will be free to the public.

AMERICANS LOST TO AUSTRALIANS

PARIS, Sunday, June 8.—The American tennis team lost both its singles matches to the Australians on Saturday in the tennis events of the inter-allied games. G. L. Patterson, Australia, beat Watson Washburn, 6-1, 4-6, 6-1, 4-8, 7-5, and O'Hara Wood beat Dean Mathey, 6-3, 6-8, 6-0, 6-4. The Australians need but one of their three remaining contests to win the allied team championship.

WICKLAND OBTAINED BY THE YANKEES

At Wickland, former Brave, has been obtained by the New York American League club from St. Paul of the American association in exchange for a Yankee player to be selected later. In addition to playing with the Braves, Wickland has pastured with Cincinnati and Chicago.

YANKS CLAIM MITCHELL

DETROIT, Mich., June 10.—Willie Mitchell, left hand pitcher of the Detroit club, upon whom waivers were asked recently, has been claimed by the New York Yankees. President Frank Navin announced today.

AMERICAN BOXER WINS

LONDON, June 10.—Eddie McGoorty, an American middleweight boxer, last night knocked out an English fighter, "Bandsman" Rice, in the first round of a 15-round bout. The fight took place at Blackpool, a summer resort on the Lancashire coast.

OUR WOUNDED SOLDIERS

Men From Overseas Remain in Army General Hospitals an Average of 32 Days

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Wounded soldiers from overseas remain in army general hospitals an average of 32 days and in base hospitals an average of 15 days before discharge, a statistical report issued today by Surgeon General Ireland indicated. Of the general hospitals, West Baden, Ind., has the highest averages for discharges, patients staying there only 16 days as a rule. The institution at East View, N. Y., has the extreme record, with 57 days.

General Ireland said he hoped soon to close all hospitals except the few which could be operated by the personnel of the regular army medical corps, with the assistance of members of the temporary forces who desire to continue their work.

URGES ALL R.R. MEN TO PRACTICE ECONOMY

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Director General Lines has issued an appeal to all officers and employees of the railroads to practice strict economy in the use of a railroad supplies and equipment and to increase the efficiency of their work wherever possible in order to keep the government's loss under the present operating deficit as low as possible.

Mr. Hines appealed for assistance of officers and employees "demonstrating that the railroads may be operated successfully even though wages of its employees have been materially increased."

TO DECLARE WAR ON NICARAGUA

SAN JUAN DEL SUR, Nicaragua, Monday, June 9.—The Nicaraguan government is reported in usually reliable quarters to have confidential information that the Costa Rican minister of war recently obtained from the congress of that country the authority to declare war upon Nicaragua. The authorization was said to be in a form which permitted him to make the declaration at an opportune moment. As Costa Rican forces are now advancing from Santa Rosa, near the Nicaraguan border in the northwestern corner of Costa Rica, it is supposed here that the declaration already has been published in Costa Rica.

It is pointed out in this capital that Nicaragua, notwithstanding her meagre police force, has done everything possible to isolate the Costa Rican revolutionary activities within Nicaragua. Costa Rica's reported action, therefore, is considered here one of gratuitous aggression, instigated by Nicaraguans resident in Costa Rica.

BOY KILLED ON HIS WAY TO SCHOOL

A very sad accident occurred in Varnum avenue this morning when Leon Genest, aged 10 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Genest, of 415 Varnum avenue was crushed between one of the rear wheels and the platform of a jitney filled with boulders. The little fellow was rushed to the Lowell General hospital, where he died shortly afterward.

Leon and his little brother, Fred, left the house shortly after 7.30 o'clock for school and climbed aboard a jitney filled with boulders, the wagon being owned by George Hall of Varnum avenue. When a point was reached opposite the Lowell General hospital, the wheels of the jitney got caught in the electric car tracks and the jolt threw Leon against one of the large wheels, and he got caught between the wheel and the platform. It was some time before the little fellow could be extricated from his position and he was carried in haste into the hospital, where all efforts to save his life proved fruitless. Fred Genest was more fortunate than his brother, for he was thrown to the ground in the rear of the wagon, receiving but slight scratches.

Leon, who was a bright pupil, cherished by his teachers and classmates, is survived by his bereaved parents, three sisters, Alice, Ida and Bertha and four brothers, Hervey, Henri, Fred and Maurice. The body was removed to the home of the parents by Undertaker Joseph Albert.

THE COMMUNITY SERVICE CLUB

An important meeting of the Community Service club will be held this evening in the quarters of the organization in the Russell building. The meeting will be called at 7.30 o'clock and it is expected a large membership will be on hand, for business of a very important nature will be transacted.

The first item of business will be the election of team captains, and it may be said that all members of the club are eligible for the positions. Then there will be a community sing under the direction of Albert Edmund Brown, and this will be followed by the reading of the pledge ritual. Miss Loughridge will give an interesting talk and a general discussion of the summer program will follow. The meeting will close with the election of officers for the ensuing year. All members of the club are cordially invited to attend.

WAR RISK BUREAU REVERSES DECISION

(Special to The Sun)

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Congressman Rogers has secured from the war risk bureau a reversal of its former decision whereby men applying for insurance after they had been stricken by a fatal illness were counted as uninsured and their families lost the benefit of insurance.

Some days ago Mr. Rogers called specific attention to the case of Carl S. Swanson of West Acton, who died under those circumstances. Yesterday, Mr. Rogers received a letter from the department stating that the Swanson case would be reopened and a payment of the insurance made to his family. The reopening of such cases will be general, and wherever a case was regarded as invalid for the sole reason that the application was practically deadweight action, a reversal of the decision will follow and payments be made.

Mr. Rogers felt that the delay in nearly every instance was caused by red tape which the soldier could not out and was not on account of negligence on his part, and that it was an injustice to the families of soldiers to permit the former ruling to stand. Thousands of cases throughout the country will be affected by this special order.

the following day unanimously adopted by the council. Ten days later the city clerk certified to its passage. On July 16 the council passed a vote authorizing the commissioner of streets and highways to enter into a contract with the Woburn Iron Works for the repair of the Woburn street bridge, the amount involved not to exceed $2500. On August 2 the contract was approved by the council. The contract had been prepared by the law department of the city. Mr. O'Donnell then went on to show how his client had made preparations to proceed with the work but was hindered owing to the alleged failure of the city to close the bridge to travel. The result was that no work was actually done, despite the persistent efforts of the firm to carry out its part of the contract. Mr. O'Donnell said that Mr. Donnelly did not ask for the entire $2500 involved in the contract but only a reasonable compensation. City Solicitor Regan was called upon and he said that he had talked the matter over with Mr. Donnelly at one time. At the time the contract was made, he said, there was no appropriation for the work in question owing to the fact that the attempted loan was not brought to a successful conclusion. Mr. Regan said he told Mr. Donnelly of this fact and the latter replied to the effect that the money end of it was of least interest to him.

The matter was finally referred to the law department and Commissioner Murphy.

The following hearings were held and the matters referred to the proper departments: Lowell Electric Light Corp., pole location in Nichols street, referred to Commissioners Marchand and Murphy; David Ziskind, relocation of electric light pole in Cambridge street, referred to Commissioners Marchand and Murphy; Samuel Orbach, garage and gasoline, 68 Middlesex street, referred to Commissioner Morse; Fred A. Maddox, gasoline, Pawtucket boulevard, referred to Commissioner Morse; Geo. A. Maynard, garage and gasoline, Powell and C streets, referred to Commissioner Morse; Rosa Ingham, garage and gasoline, 62 Robbins street, referred to Commissioner Morse; A. J. Couture, garage, 47-49 South Whipple street, referred to Commissioner Morse; William J. Lambert, gasoline, 98A Middlesex street, referred to Commissioner Morse.

The petitions of John Brady, gasoline, 155 Church street, and R. I. McAllister, garage and gasoline, 23-25 Concord street, were held for hearings July 1.

The following petitions were referred to Commissioner Murphy: Fred L. Carr, sidewalk, 1890 Middlesex street; Ethel M. Breen, sidewalk, Foster street; South Lowell Improvement association, that Carmine, Bolton and Acton streets be accepted; J. W. Whitehead et al, that a portion of Parker street be closed, and James F. Loughran, that the sidewalk in front of the premises at 455 High street be accepted.

The acceptance of John A. Stevens of his election as a member of the high school building commission was placed on file.

The communication to members of the council signed by Edward F. Flanagan and others, representing the Mutual Benefit and Protective association

MRS HALPIN AND PILOT NIGHTENGALE

FIRST LOWELL WOMAN TO TAKE AIR RIDE

As far as can be learned, Mrs. A. J. Halpin, wife of Dr. Halpin of Chester street, is the first Lowell woman to undertake an air flight and she did this on a sunny afternoon last week at Pemberton without the slightest trace of trepidation. At the end of 18 minutes when her pilot, Lieut. Nightengale, formerly of the United States naval air service, brought his "ship" down across the stern of the Naufastet boat and let it settle on to the waters of the bay, Mrs. Halpin was most enthusiastic and wanted to go right up again and stay for an hour. But her darling had so aroused Dr. Halpin that he insisted on being the next passenger, so off he spun for 18 minutes and returned with the same feeling of excitement.

"I enjoyed every minute of it," said Mrs. Halpin. "I had always believed a person would feel terribly nervous and dizzy when really off the ground, but those sensations did not come to me once. I would love to stay at Pemberton all summer so I might go up every day."

Fletcher street and Western avenue was approved by the council on the recommendation of the law department.

A petition signed by a score of residents of Belvidere asked that the city acquire land on the northerly side of Stackpole street bordering on the southerly bank of the Merrimack river, extending from the land owned or leased by the owners of St. John's hospital and thence running easterly to Alder street. The petitioners stated that they felt this land should be preserved as a park or place of recreation and that the erection of buildings on it should be discouraged for the reason that it affords a beautiful view of the Merrimack river. The petition was referred to the mayor.

Fourth of July Celebration

The council voted to stage a Fourth of July celebration in the nature of a reception to returned soldiers and sailors, the details to be worked out later. An appropriation for preliminary expenses will be passed at the next meeting of the council.

Following the approval of monthly bills the council adjourned at 11:35 until Tuesday at 10 a. m.

Commissioner Murphy suggested that the bath house be named after the late Harry W. Howe, a former member of the waterways commission who had done excellent work for the children of the city in this line. The mayor thought the suggestion a good one and said that the park department would undoubtedly consider it. It was unanimously voted to adopt the loan order.

Licenses were voted granted to Patrick Keyes for garage and gasoline at 45 Waugh st. and to the Central fire station for gasoline in Middle street, on recommendation of Commissioner Morse.

To Abate Taxes
It was voted to recommend to the assessors that they abate the 1919 taxes of property owners on land to be taken for the erection of the city's memorial auditorium providing that said owners give the city a confirmation deed and that they receive less than 25 per cent. in excess of the assessed value of the property. Mayor Thompson explained that the city will get rental revenue from the buildings from the time they are actually taken over until they are demolished and for this reason it was not considered fair to levy taxes on the present owners.

The disclaimer submitted by the Locks and Canals last week providing that the city should discharge no sewage into the Pawtucket canal through a pipe about to be laid in down across the stern of the Naufastet boat and let it settle on to the waters of the bay, Mrs. Halpin was most enthusiastic and wanted to go right up again and stay for an hour. But her darling had so aroused Dr. Halpin that he insisted on being the next passenger, so off he spun for 18 minutes and returned with the same feeling of excitement.
